

The Institute of African Studies Students Association and the Institute of African Studies at Carleton University present

Rethinking NGOs: Reflecting on Three Months in Tanzania

WITH

Brittony Chartier, MA candidate in History, Carleton University

Friday, 13 January 2012, 1:00- 2:30 pm
History Lounge, 433 Paterson Hall
Carleton University

Brittony Chartier went to Tanzania with the CIDA "Students for Development" program through Carleton in the summer of 2011, working at the Peace Matunda School and Orphanage in Tanzania. She will discuss her experience during this internship. Carleton University and CIDA representatives and previous Carleton students who went to this orphanage will also be on hand to discuss this program.

*For a campus map, please see: <http://www2.carleton.ca/cu/campus/>

For more information about the talk, please contact the Institute of African Studies, african_studies@carleton.ca.