

Radio, Participatory Journalism & post-conflict Uganda

Monday, Nov. 5 @ 11:30 a.m.
Room 2104 - Canal Building
Carleton University - free admission

David Okindi, former station manager of Mega FM in Gulu, northern Uganda and Farm Radio International's first African board member, will share his experiences in running diverse, participatory radio programs in an area which is rebuilding after years of conflict.

