

Institute of African Studies is pleased to present the following PUBLIC EVENT:

RESOURCE EXTRACTION AND AFRICA: RETHINKING (THE SPACES OF) GOVERNANCE

Bonnie Campbell, UQAM, Research strategies and policy proposals. Reflections from the artisanal and small-scale mining sector in Africa

Maria Laura Barreto, Material Efficiency Research Group, Mining is not only a business for big corporations: The Socio-economic contribution of ASM and the role of law

Chris Huggins, UOttawa, Land rights, place-making and multi-actor negotiation in the mining sector

Offah Obale, Partnership Africa Canada, Resource extraction and governance in Africa: Stories from the Kimberley Process Certification Scheme

Doris Buss and Blair Rutherford, Carleton, Women's place in the (artisanal) mine: Gender narratives from mine site to governance arena

THURSDAY, MARCH 23 2:30-5:30 PM,

2017 DUNTON TOWER

Campus map can be found at carleton.ca/campus/map/

For more information, please contact doris.buss@carleton.ca