

Carleton University's Institute of African Studies and the Film Studies program present a screening of :

Robert Mugabe ... What Happened?

and a discussion with director, Simon Bright

Tuesday, May 7

7 pm

Azrieli Theatre 101,* Carleton University

Billed as the definitive account of Robert Mugabe's life, the film is said to dramatically illustrate Mugabe's successful liberation and development of the country (Zimbabwe) but also his ruthless and cunning retention of power at all costs.

Come watch the screening of the film and stay for a Q and A with the Zimbabwean director, Simon Bright.

For a trailer, please go to: <http://vimeo.com/24822228> .

For more information, please contact African_Studies@carleton.ca .

No cost and open to the public.

* For a campus map, please go to: <http://www1.carleton.ca/campus/>

