

Institute of
African Studies
CARLETON UNIVERSITY

The Institute of African Studies presents

“Managing oil revenues amidst decentralised federalism in Nigeria: a political economy perspective”

With

Vanessa Ushie, Helleiner Visiting Research Fellow, North-South Institute

Wednesday, 16 January, 1:00- 2:30 pm

The Arts Lounge, 2017 Dunton Tower, Carleton University*

Vanessa Ushie is the Helleiner Visiting Research Fellow at the North South Institute (NSI) and former Director of Research at the Centre for the Study of the Economies of Africa (CSEA) Abuja, Nigeria, which is currently Nigeria’s leading economic policy think-tank. Vanessa’s background cuts across natural resource economics, political economy of oil, energy geopolitics, and the political economy of Nigerian and African development. She has worked on research and consultancy projects for leading Nigerian government institutions, multilateral and donor agencies such as the World Bank, UNDP and DFID, and private sector companies. She has experience in teaching development economics, working as an economist and researcher, and providing policy advice on oil revenue management and extractive sector governance. Vanessa holds a PhD in Economics from the School of Oriental and African Studies (SOAS), University of London.

For more information, please contact the Institute of African Studies at 613-520-2600 ext. 2220 or African_Studies@carleton.ca

*For a campus map, please see: <http://www2.carleton.ca/cu/campus/>