

2016 Annual Rose Maguire Lecture

BUILDING COMMUNITY THROUGH PUBLIC ART

BEYOND THESE WALLS

VIEW A DOCUMENTARY AND A PUBLIC LECTURE

Dr. John H. Lorentz is a Professor of History Emeritus at Shawnee State University in Portsmouth, Ohio. In addition to an active teaching and research portfolio in the University, he served as the founding Director of the Center for International Programs and Activities and after retirement from teaching he served as the Associate Provost for International Education at Shawnee State University. In the past few years he has been active as the principal scholar and producer of documentaries such as “Beyond These Walls,” a film with universal themes that has aired nationally on PBS as well as in multiple Film Festivals.

Friday March 18th , 3pm -6pm

Paterson 303, Humanities Lecture Hall

A reception will follow

Free Admission

College of the Humanities
CARLETON UNIVERSITY