

The Centre for European Studies in cooperation with the Institute of European, Russian and Eurasian Studies is pleased to invite you to a

Public Round-Table Discussion on the Canada-EU Summit 2008

Panelists:

Patrick Leblond

Graduate School of Public and International Affairs, University of Ottawa

David Long

Norman Paterson School of International Affairs, Carleton University

Constanza Musu

Graduate School of Public and International Affairs, University of Ottawa

The recent Canada-EU summit addressed issues relating to the economic partnership between the European Union and Canada. In addition, however, there are a range of other questions, concerning for example security and political cooperation, which remain of significant concern for the transatlantic relationship. Professor Leblond will comment on the economic partnership, Professor Long on political matters, and Professor Musu on security.

After the panelists' statements, the public is invited to comment and to put questions to the speakers. Information on the summit can be found at:<http://www.carleton.ca/ces/newsroom>.

Where: Room A602, Loeb Building, Carleton University

When: Wednesday, October 29th, 2008
2:30 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.

*The event is supported, in part, by a grant from the European Commission.
