

CURRENT EVENTS SERIES

Bridging the Gap: Can Canada Learn from the EU in Combating Human Trafficking?

Presenter: Kim Howson, Carleton University
Date: Wednesday, October 20, 2010
Time: 12:30 noon —1:45pm
Location: Dunton Tower, 22nd floor, Room 2203

www.carleton.ca/ces

Kim Howson, an MA student at the Institute of European, Russian and Eurasian Studies, participated in the EU Study Tour this past summer and completed an internship at Payoke, a Belgian NGO involved in combating human trafficking.

This presentation will assess Canadian policies related to human trafficking in comparison to efforts in the European Union, and will offer suggestions as to how Canada's system can be improved.

BRING YOUR OWN LUNCH BEVERAGES WILL BE PROVIDED!

