

The Centre for European Studies is pleased to invite you to a roundtable discussion on:

Open Markets, Segmented Identities, Contested Legitimacy? Comparing Regional Integration in Europe and North America

How have European and North American integration affected citizen identities and patterns of political contestation? Are the two integration projects legitimate in the eyes of the citizens? How different are they in their political implications?

Participants: Laura Macdonald, Carleton University
 Neil Nevitte, University of Toronto
 George Ross, Université de Montréal
 Steffen Schneider, Universität Bremen

Moderator: Achim Hurrelmann, Carleton University

Date:	Friday, November 5
Time	2:30-4:30 pm
