

Curriculum Vitae

Name	Dr. phil. Frank Umbach born 1963 in Kassel E-Mail: umbach@cess-net.eu
Current Position:	Senior Associate and Head of the Programme “International Energy Security” at the Centre for European Security Strategies (CESS) GmbH, Munich-Berlin & Associate Director des European Centre for Energy and Resource Security (EUCERS), Department of War Studies, King’s College London as well as Consultant for International Energy Security and Security Policies as well as the Asia-Pacific Region.
Expertise:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Energy, Foreign und Security Policies in Russia, the Caspian Region, Asia-Pacific (i.e. China and Japan), EU and Germany – i.e. energy (supply) security, energy foreign policy, geopolitical risks, global energy challenges and maritime security. • Since September 2010: member of the new Ukraine 2020 Task Force, an initiative of the U.S.-Ukraine Foundation in Washington and the Pylyp Orlyk Institute for Democracy in Kyiv to to support Ukraine’s European integration. • December 2009-June 2010: member of a track-two expert group on the future NATO-Russia relations, organized by the East-West-Institute in Brussels. • 2008: member of two high-ranking transatlantic expert groups on energy security; • Feb. 2007: appointed as an official advisor of the (previous) Lithuanian Government for international energy security; • 2003-2007 Co-Chair des European Committee of the Council for Security Co-operation in Asia-Pacific (CSCAP-Europe), the most important regional „Track Two-Diplomacy“-institution for security policies in Asia-Pacific.
Employment History:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 1991-1994 Research Fellow at the Federal Institute for East European and International Studies (BIOst) in Cologne; • 1992 for one year Research Assistant in the office of the „Special Advisor for Central and East European Affairs“ of the NATO-General Secretary in Brussels and 1993-2003 Consultant of this office. • 1995-1996 Research Fellow at the research institute of the Japanese Foreign Ministry (Japan Institute for International Affairs/JIIA) in Tokyo. • In the 1990s several longer research stays in the U.S.A (Washington D.C., Fort Leavenworth and Santa Monica) and Russia (Moscow); • Received Research Grants of NATO, the Kennan-Institute for Advanced Russian Studies (Washington D.C.) and the Japan Foundation. • 1996-End of 2007 Head of the Programmes „International Energy Security“ and „Security Policies in Asia-Pacific“ at the German Council on Foreign Relations (DGAP) in Bonn and Berlin.
Consultancy for/written analyses on behalf of:	German Ministries of Foreign Affairs and Defence Policies; European Commission and European Parliament, US-State Department, US Energy Department, U.S.-China Economic and Security Review Commission (US-Congress), the Lithuanian Government, the House of Lords (British Parliament), NATO, the OSCE, and one of the Presidential Working Groups on "International Issues Relating to Raw Materials" of the Federation of the German Industries (BDI) in 2005/2006.
In Addition:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Member of the International Institute for Strategic Studies (IISS) in London; • Author of more than 250 publications in 25 countries, including: "Global Energy Security: Strategic Challenges for the European and German Foreign Policy" (Munich: Oldenbourg-Verlag, 2003, 328 pp. in German)
Study/University/ Degree and Year of Graduation:	Study of Political Science, East European History and European/International Law at the Universities of Marburg and Bonn; Master Degree in 1990 and Ph.D. in 1996 (University of Bonn).