

Policy Workshop:

EU Partnership with Ukraine, Moldova, and Georgia

Friday, February 10, 2017

11:30 am – 5:30 pm

Senate Room, 608 Robertson Hall, Carleton University Campus

Image Credit: Lina Gryu, Moldavian radio "Free Europe"

This workshop examines the EU's eastern partnership policy since the Ukraine crisis, with a focus on the important association and trade agreements reached in 2014 between the EU and key partners: Georgia, Ukraine, and Moldova.

International speakers include:

Michael Emerson, Centre for European Policy Studies, Brussels

Elena Korosteleva, University of Kent, UK

Roman Petrov, National University of Kyiv-Mohyla Academy, Ukraine

Ghia Nodia, Ilia Chavchavadze State University, Tbilisi, Georgia

William Crowther, University of North Carolina

The workshop is supported by the Jean Monnet Chair in the EU's Relations with Russia and the Eastern Neighbourhood, which receives funding from the Erasmus+ program of the European Union. Support is also provided by the Canada-Europe Transatlantic Dialogue (funded by SSHRC) and by Carleton University. A light lunch will be served for registered guests.

Jean Monnet Chair events are co-funded by a grant from the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Union.

Please register at

<http://carleton.ca/ces/cu-events/eu-partnership-umg>

Carleton
UNIVERSITY