

The Critical Law, Gender, and Sexualities Speaker Series invites you to a Panel Discussion and Q&A on

Teenage Sexting: Digital Cultures, Digital Economies & Crime Control

“Ratings and Hating: Sexting, Digital Sexual Cultures and Risk”
Jessica Ringrose, Institute of Education, University of London

“Sexting and the Digital Economy: Gender and the Value of Privacy and Consent”
Amy Adele Hasinoff, Art History & Communications Studies, McGill University

“Slut-shaming, ‘Self-exploitation’ and Whiteness in Canadian Extra/Legal Response to Sexting”
Lara Karaian, Institute of Criminology & Criminal Justice, Carleton University

September 25, 2012. 3:00-5:00 pm
River Building, Conference Room 2228

Please contact Lara_Karaian@carleton.ca for more information.

This event is sponsored by the Institute of Criminology and Criminal Justice, the Department of Law and Legal Studies, the Department of Sexuality Studies (Institute of Interdisciplinary Studies), and the Department of Sociology and Anthropology