ENGL 2011A: Children's Literature – Final syllabus

Monday & Wednesday / 11:35 to 14:25
Location: Please confirm location on Carleton Central

Instructor: Susan Cooper
Email: SusanAnn.Cooper@carleton.ca
Office: DT 1914
Office Hours: To Be Posted on cuLearn

Course Description: As C.S. Lewis famously pointed out: "A children's story that can only be enjoyed by children is not a good children's story in the slightest." The focus of this course is children's literature as literature: writing characterized by skilful techniques and thought-provoking content. Beginning with the deceptively simple fairy tale and continuing on to adventure tales, stories about home and family, and fantasy, we will study the formats and elements of fiction used by children's writers to express or imply a wide range of messages. Although some necessary historical context will be discussed, for the most part we will be reading for and discussing the themes conveyed by the assigned readings.

Note: This course precludes additional credit for ENGL 2006 (no longer offered).

General course requirements:

1. Academic Regulations 2.1 Credit: To obtain credit in a course, students must meet all the course requirements for attendance, term work and examinations as published in the course outline.
2. Extensions or exemptions may be granted in exceptional circumstances only; otherwise, assignments must be submitted or completed on due dates. Specific details are supplied in the descriptions of individual course components (see below). See also General course requirement # 9.
3. Academic Fraud – plagiarism:

The University Senate defines plagiarism as "presenting, whether intentionally or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one's own." This can include:

- reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else's published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one's own without proper citation or reference to the original source;
- submitting a take-home examination, essay, laboratory report or other assignment written, in whole or in part, by someone else;
- using ideas or direct, verbatim quotations, or paraphrased material, concepts, or ideas without appropriate acknowledgment in any academic assignment;
- using another's data or research findings;
- failing to acknowledge sources through the use of proper citations when using another's works and/or failing to use quotation marks;
- handing in "substantially the same piece of work for academic credit more than once without prior written permission of the course instructor in which the submission occurs."

Plagiarism is a serious offence which cannot be resolved directly with the course's instructor. The Associate Deans of the Faculty conduct a rigorous investigation, including an interview with the student, when an instructor suspects a piece of work has been plagiarized. Penalties are not trivial. They can include a final grade of "F" for the course.

4. Any important requests must be submitted in the form of a typed, hard copy formal business letter and should be accompanied with all necessary documentation (e.g. doctor's note). E-mail requests will not be considered. Please check that the request is clear and complete, because it will be evaluated in terms of the information and documentation supplied. This paper trail facilitates effective and fair administration of all problematic circumstances.

5. Academic accommodations: You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term. For an accommodation request the processes are as follows:

Pregnancy obligation: write to me with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details see the Student Guide: <http://carleton.ca/equity/wp-content/uploads/Student-Guide-to-Academic-Accommodation.pdf>

Religious obligation: write to me with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details see the Student Guide: <http://carleton.ca/equity/wp-content/uploads/Student-Guide-to-Academic-Accommodation.pdf>

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities: The Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) provides services to students with Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/mental health disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD), chronic medical conditions, and impairments in mobility, hearing, and vision. If you have a disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact PMC at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation.

If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send me your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable).

After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with me to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. Please consult the PMC website for the deadline to request accommodations for the formally-scheduled exam (if applicable): <http://carleton.ca/pmc/>

6. Class room etiquette: Cell phones must be switched off during class. Laptop computers may be used for note taking purposes only. Lively discussion of the course material is welcome, but private conversations, texting, and all other disruptive behaviour are not. Netiquette: Virtual space such as cuLearn is an extension of the class room, and e-mail correspondence is an extension of polite conversation – the exchange of ideas must be clear, accurate, and polite, regardless of medium.

7. Students are responsible for ensuring that they are familiar with cuLearn, and that they check the cuLearn page for the course on a regular basis. Any individual technical difficulties or other problems which can be resolved within the first few weeks of classes must be resolved or called to my attention at the start of term, not belatedly. (Any system-wide problems with cuLearn will be addressed as required throughout term.)

8. Students are responsible for ensuring that they obtain copies of the required readings in a timely fashion. Any problems obtaining texts must be called to my attention within the first few days of term.

9. In exceptional cases, extensions or exemptions may be granted. Students who face serious, foreseeable problems meeting a deadline must submit a detailed, documented request for an extension no later than 48 hours before the deadline. Only students who face unforeseeable, extraordinary problems may request an extension any later than this.

IMPORTANT: Extension requests must be submitted in writing, in the form of a hard copy (paper) business letter – NOT an e-mail. Documents verifying the problem (e.g., doctor's note) must be stapled to this letter. See also General course requirement # 4.

NB: The cover letter is mandatory – documents such as a doctor's note will not be accepted without it.

NOTE: Sometimes Academic Regulation 2.6 may come into play, i.e., students may be required to apply for a deferral of an assignment deadline through the Registrar's Office. The RO website has a list of

FAQs on deferred final exams/assignments. See: <http://www.carleton.ca/registrar/special-requests/deferral/>

Specific Course Requirements:

Assignments and evaluation:

Participation work: 10%

Reading journal: 10%

On-line quizzes: 40%

Take-Home examination: 40%

Marks for individual assignments will be posted on cuLearn, but not calculated grades and definitely not the final official grades. ¹

Participation work: (10% final grade)

Due: Randomly, throughout the term.

Approximately five assignments will be assigned (could well be more).

Participation work will be completed in class only. It is primarily pop work, i.e., given with no prior warning. It may be assigned at any time during a class. Students are responsible for keeping track of and completing assignments. Work must be completed within the assigned class time, not belatedly. No make-ups permitted. Students who miss an assignment for medical or other valid reasons may request an exemption from it, following the protocol set out in General Course Requirements 4 and 9.

Format: Variable – will be adapted to suit needs of class: may include in-class comprehension and writing assignments, either open-book or closed book, individual or group work.

Participation work objectives: Ensuring familiarity and enhancing engagement with the assigned readings; enabling both student and instructor to gain insight into individual strengths and weaknesses in interpretation and writing skills; preparing students to write the quizzes and the take-home.

Reading journal: (10% of final grade)

Due: See cuLearn for due dates

Format: On-line work.

A total of 5 journal entries, each approximately 250 to 500 words in length, commenting on one or more of the assigned readings BEFORE the material has been discussed in class. Each entry may cover any aspect of the assigned reading that strikes you as interesting or memorable, but must NOT review or evaluate the reading. The objective is to shed some light on the reading, not the reader.

Journal entries must be submitted on cuLearn.

¹ Note: Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor subject to the approval of the Faculty Dean. This means that grades submitted by the instructor may be subject to revision. No grades are final until they have been approved by the Dean

Assignment objectives: Ensuring familiarity and enhancing engagement with the assigned readings. Enabling both student and instructor to gain insight into individual strengths and weaknesses in interpretation and writing skills.

On-line quizzes: (*Quiz # 1:*10%, + Quiz #2: 15% + Quiz #3: 15% = 40% of final grade)

Due: See Course Calendar.

Format: On-line work.

Each of the three quizzes will contain a minimum of 35 questions. Possible question formats include – but are not limited to – multiple choice, true false and short answer.

Only ONE attempt per quiz will be permitted, but a 72-hour window of opportunity (minimum) will be provided to complete each quiz.

Quizzes are open-book.

Content: Quizzes will cover the assigned readings, lectures, and any notes posted on cuLearn.

Quiz objectives: Ensuring students keep up with assigned reading, read thoughtfully and carefully, and grasp key concepts raised in lectures.

Requirements: This is a mandatory course component; it must be completed in order to pass the course. Students who fail to complete the quizzes may not submit the Take home examination.

Take home examination: (40% of final grade)

Due: Last day of exam period.

Format: An essay approximately 2,000 words long in which each student provides his or her original insights into one or more of the assigned readings.

Content: Essay topics to be handed out at the final class. Detailed instructions also supplied separately on cuLearn.

Style: Specific details to be posted on cuLearn.

Grading criteria: Essays will be graded in terms of content and G.U.M. (Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics). Essays must be carefully documented, using MLA format: all sources, both primary and secondary, must be cited.

Objective: Providing students with a means of applying and/or developing ideas covered in the course.

Requirements: This course component is mandatory; it must be completed in order to pass the course
