

British Literature II

ENGL 3502A

May-August 2015

Monday/Wednesday 6:05 pm — 8:55 pm

Morgan Rooney

Want to walk among your fellow mortals as an intellectual giant, much as Gulliver here towers over the Lilliputians?

Then join us in ENGL 3502A this summer, where we'll be reading some of the most interesting literature produced in Britain circa 1700-1914 while developing your writing, research, and critical thinking skills.

The conversations we engage in will be, I promise, much more informed than the often misguided speculations of Gulliver!
