

The Institute of European, Russian and Eurasian Studies is pleased to present:

The Changing Security Landscape of Central Asia: A view from Kazakhstan

With Dr. Aigerim Shilibekova

With the removal of NATO forces from Afghanistan this year, leaving Russia and China poised to have a larger role in the area, the importance of Central Asian security issues pertaining to terrorism, energy resources, and regional geopolitics will dramatically increase.

Dr. Shilibekova is a Visiting Scholar with the Davis Centre for Russian Studies and is the founding director of the Centre for International and Regional Studies at Gumilyov Eurasian National University in Astana.

Monday, March 24

RB 3302

2:30 – 4:00PM

Light refreshments will be served

For more information, please contact Chris Manor at christopher.manor@carleton.ca or visit our website at www.carleton.ca/eurus

This event is supported by the Magna Fund for Russian Studies