

Alexander N. Vylegzhanin, Doctor of Law, Professor, is a Head of the Department of International Law, Moscow State Institute of International Relations (MGIMO- University). He is currently elected as a Vice-president of the Russian Association of International Law and as a Vice-president of the Russian Association of the Law of the Sea. He is nominated by the Russian Federation to the list of arbitrators according to Annex VII of the UNCLOS. His major interest is General International Law, International Law of the Sea, Legal Regime of Natural Resources, Territory, Boundaries, the Arctic, the Caspian Sea. He has publicized a wide array of books and manuscripts on international issues, to name a few: "Environmental Security in the Arctic Ocean" (with Professor P.Berkman as Co-editor; Co-editor and co-author, 2009-2013); "International Law" (Editor and co-author, 2009, 2010,2011), "Russia and methods of solving of international legal problems" (Editor, 2010), "International Legal Basics of Subsoil" (Editor and co-author, 2007), "Russia and International Law" (Editor and co-author, 2006), "Integrated Management of Coastal Zones" – Legal Glossary (Editor and co-author, 2005),"International Court of Justice: Judgments On Delimitation of Maritime Areas" (2004), "International Law of the Sea" (co-author, 2003), "Spitsbergen; Legal regime of Adjacent Marine Areas" (co-author, 2007), "Principal Legal Issues of Management of Natural Resources of the Caspian Sea" (co-author, 2000), "Arctic Region; issues of International Cooperation. Vol. III. Applicable Legal Sources" (Co-editor and co-author, 2013), etc. Prof. Vylegzhanin was awarded a rank of Academician by the Russian Academy of Natural Sciences, a Medal by the Russian Academy of Natural Sciences (2001) for his book "Legal Regime of Marine Natural Resources" (2001).He was awarded a title "Honorable Jurist of the Russian Federation" in 2011 by the President of the Russian Federation. He was elected by the Expert Council on Arctic and Antarctic of the Council of Federation (Upper Chamber of the Russian Parliament) as a Member of the Presidium of this Council (from 2014).