

Comparative Social Policy: Canada and the European Union

EURR 5201U

Fall 2014

Wednesdays 11:30AM – 2:30PM

With Professor Therese Jennissen

This course will examine some of the fundamentals of comparative social policy of Canada and the EU. It will also help students develop skills in critical analysis of comparative social policies in Canada and European Union member state. This course is available to both Masters and PhD students!

Register for this course on Carleton Central!