

Twenty Years of the Russian Federation A Presentation by Larry Black

What does the future hold for the Russian Federation? Since its formation in 1991, Larry Black, a Distinguished Research Professor at Carleton University, has been closely watching the evolution of the Russian Federation and its changing niche in the world arena. As an expert in Russian and Soviet history, politics, foreign policy and Canadian-Soviet relations, Professor Black has a special take on a number of issues in Russia's future—including the Putin-Medvedev tandem.

On Saturday, May 14, 2011, join your fellow Carleton EURUS graduates at a special FOCUS series lecture, and hear Professor Black's 20-year retrospective of the Russian Federation.

Saturday, May 14, 2011
10:30 – 11:30 a.m.
Carleton University

1125 Colonel By Drive, Ottawa

Free parking is available in Lots P1 and P2.

EURUS grads are also invited to attend a fun evening of networking at The Arrow and the Loon Pub, 99 Fifth Avenue, Ottawa at 8:00 p.m. on Saturday, May 14, 2011. Cash bar. Complimentary hors d'oeuvres will be provided.

Please register for these events online at alumni.carleton.ca/events.
For additional information, visit us online at carleton.ca/alumni or contact us at cu\_proud@carleton.ca or 1-866-CU-PROUD (287-7683).

The award-winning Faculty of Carleton University Speakers (FOCUS) series gives alumni the opportunity to hear the brilliant ideas and perspectives of some of Carleton's most dynamic academics and researchers. This event is part of Alumni Week 2011, May 10-14, an annual celebration of the outstanding achievements, lifelong connections and exceptional ideas of Carleton University alumni.

back to top ↑

YouTube

All rights reserved, © Carleton University 2010.
This email has been sent by University Advancement.
Click here to manage your contact preferences.