

Welcome to the Maxwell MacOdrum Library!

My name is Janet Hempstead, and I am the Reference Librarian who is your liaison for conducting library research. Please feel free to contact me for help with your research. You may be interested in a topic that spans subject areas or disciplines. A list of all of the librarians and specialists, and their subject responsibilities, can be found on the Library's web site at <http://www.library.carleton.ca/services/research-help>

Below are some links to resources and information that may help you to get started.

Don't forget to consider other relevant guides from other subject areas, for instance

- |                                    |                                    |
|------------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| • Child Studies                    | • Political Science                |
| • Criminology and Criminal Justice | • Public Policy and Administration |
| • Government Information           | • Religion                         |
| • History                          | • Sexuality Studies                |
| • Human Rights                     | • Sociology                        |
