COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is designed to examine, in an increasingly complex constitutional and social context, the principles of criminal law liability and responsibility in Canada, including issues and problems surrounding mens rea, actus reus, and knowledge. Liability for unfulfilled crimes and various degrees of participation in a crime will be assessed. Various defenses, including entrapment, self-defence, duress, necessity, provocation, intoxication and mental disorder will be considered. The course examines the application of general principles of criminal liability to some specific offences, including the various forms of homicide, sexual, property and terrorism offences. Regulatory offences and corporate and organized crimes are also explored. A historical legal and jurisprudential perspective is emphasized in the context of evolving Charter protections.
