The Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) provides services to students with Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/mental health disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD), chronic medical conditions, and impairments in mobility, hearing, and vision. If you have a disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact PMC at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation. If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send me your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with me to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. Please consult the PMC website for the deadline to request accommodations for the formally-scheduled exam (if applicable). For Religious and Pregnancy accommodations, please contact Equity Services, x. 5622 or their website: www.carleton.ca/equity

OBJECTIVES & CONTENT:

This course focuses on the politics inherent in the use of the criminal justice system to maintain social order. Students will explore the nature of "political crimes" such as treason and conspiracy, as well as the use of conventional criminal sanctions against the politically motivated offender – 'terrorism' is prominent in this current discussion. The course will identify current issues focusing on the shift of mores and power in western society, and examine the use of the criminal justice system and the 'dominant discourse' of media and politics, both to maintain the status quo and to effect political change. In that context, a frequent comparison with American judicial and political experience will be explored.

REQUIRED READING:

LAWS 3306 Course Pack.

SUPPLEMENTARY READING:

Please check course Webct for extensive articles, editorials, and items expanding on lectures. As well, other readings will be suggested in class on a regular basis.

Pocket Criminal Code. [any current edition] would be useful reference tool.

Verdun-Jones, Simon. Criminal Law in Canada: Cases, Questions and the Code, 5th ed. Toronto: Harcourt Canada, 2002.

EVALUATION PROCEDURES: Midterm Exam - 30% Final Exam - 70%

Midterm Exam - closed book, 1.5 hrs - scheduled for 9:00-10:30 am, Saturday, October 27th

1. Please double-check the CUTV web site for the location. Exam will consist of an essay chosen from several topics.

Please note: It is your responsibility to pick up from the Law dept. or arrange to receive from CUTV your midterm exam. I cannot tell a student his or her mark over the phone or by email.

2. Final Exam - The final exam will be a university scheduled closed book exam of 2.5 hrs. The final exam may consist of a fact situation and also contain essay-style questions, with choices. Details will be discussed in the class. Final exams are not returned to the student but are retained by the Department. If you wish to see your exam after it has been marked, please contact the department and you can arrange a time to do so.

IMPORTANT NOTE: Failure to complete any portion of the required evaluation will result in an F grade. Students who fail to meet this course's requirements, ie. complete the midterm exam, may be assigned an FND grade on the FGR. A deferral granted by the Registrar's Office prior to receipt of the FGR may be rescinded if this grade is assigned.

COURSE OUTLINE:

All required readings are in the course pack.

PLEASE NOTE: Course pack readings are considered as a foundation source which enable class discussion, and are not required to be read in any particular sequence, but you are entrusted with doing that reading. That said, LECTURES are not based on or directly linked to the course pack readings per se. I do not provide electronic notes; please pay attention to the class lectures & discussions to absorb the key themes. HAVE FAITH ! Apparent vagueness in material discussed or referenced will resolve itself as lectures progress; you will be invited to think, analyze, and be critical, rather than regurgitate notes.

1. Introduction; the political state of things, media impact on perceptions, the rule of law, the current government's 'omnibus' crime bill—the state of law reform: this may well form the core discussion focus of the course as there are critical impacts pending
