Students with disabilities needing academic accommodations in this course are required to contact a coordinator at the Paul Menton Centre to complete the necessary letters of accommodation. The student must then make an appointment to discuss their needs with the instructor at least two weeks prior to the first class or ITV test. This is to ensure sufficient time is available to make the necessary accommodation arrangement. Please note the deadline for submitting completed forms to the PMC for formally scheduled exam accommodations is March 14, 2008 for April examinations. For further information, please see, http://www.carleton.ca/pmc/students/accom_policy.html

OBJECTIVES & CONTENT:

This course focuses on the politics inherent in the use of the criminal justice system to maintain social order. Students will explore the nature of "political crimes" such as treason and conspiracy, as well as the use of conventional criminal sanctions against the politically motivated offender – 'terrorism' is prominent in this current discussion. The course will identify current issues focusing on the shift of mores and power in western society, and examine the use of the criminal justice system and the 'dominant discourse' of media and politics, both to maintain the status quo and to effect political change. In that context, a frequent comparison with American judicial and political experience will be explored.

REQUIRED READING:

LAWS 3306 Course Pack.
Pocket Criminal Code. [any current edition]

RECOMMENDED READING:

Verdun-Jones, Simon. Criminal Law in Canada: Cases, Questions and the Code, 3rd ed. Toronto: Harcourt Canada, 2002.

Other readings will be suggested in class from time to time. Some supplementary articles may be distributed .

EVALUATION PROCEDURES: Midterm Exam - 30% Final Exam - 70%

1. Midterm Exam - will be held on Friday, October 24, 7:30-9 p.m. Please double-check the CUTV web site for the location. The midterm (closed book) will consist of an essay chosen from several topics. You will have 1 ½ hours to complete the exam.

Please note: It is your responsibility to pick up from the Law dept. or arrange to receive from CUTV your midterm exam. I will not tell a student his or her mark over the phone or by email.

2. Final Exam - The final exam will be a university scheduled exam. The final exam may consist of a fact situation and also contain essay-style questions, with choices. Details will be discussed in the class. Final exams are not returned to the student but are retained by the Department. If you wish to see your exam after it has been marked, please contact the department and you can arrange a time to do so.

IMPORTANT NOTE: Failure to complete any portion of the required evaluation will result in an F grade. Exams are not returned but may be reviewed with the instructor during office hours

COURSE OUTLINE:

All required readings, except sections from the Criminal Code, are in the course pack.
