Students with disabilities needing academic accommodations in this course are required to contact a coordinator at the Paul Menton Centre to complete the necessary letters of accommodation. The student must then make an appointment to discuss their needs with the instructor at least two weeks prior to the first class or ITV test. This is to ensure sufficient time is available to make the necessary accommodation arrangement. Please note the deadline for submitting completed forms to the PMC for formally scheduled exam accommodations is 2008 for August examinations. For further information, please see, http://www.carleton.ca/pmc/students/accom_policy.html

OBJECTIVES & CONTENT:

This course focuses on the politics inherent in the use of the criminal justice system to maintain social order. Students will explore the nature of "political crimes" such as treason and conspiracy, as well as the use of conventional criminal sanctions against the politically motivated offender. The course will identify current issues focusing on the shift of mores and power in western society, and examine the use of the criminal justice system and the 'dominant discourse' of media and politics, both to maintain the status quo and to effect political change. In that context, a frequent comparison with American judicial and political experience will be explored.

REQUIRED READING:

LAWS 3306 Course Pack  Please note: this material is considered as basic reading fundamental to the course themes, but will often not appear directly referable to class lectures or necessarily the thread of discussion. It is expected you will read the course pack, and of course are welcome to pose questions deriving therefrom, but the readings themselves will not be lectured upon directly.

Pocket Criminal Code. [any current edition]

RECOMMENDED READING:

Verdun-Jones, Simon. Criminal Law in Canada: Cases, Questions and the Code, 3rd ed. Toronto: Harcourt Canada, 2002.

Other readings will be suggested in class frequently.

EVALUATION PROCEDURES: Midterm Exam - 30% Final Exam - 70%

1. Midterm Exam - will be held on Friday, July 25 at Azrieli Theatre @ 7:30-9:00 pm; please double-check the CUTV web site for the time & location

PLEASE NOTE: your tapes/broadcast may indicate an earlier hour for the exam (ie. 7 pm) but since taping, the hour has been pushed back as shown above due to scheduling conflicts. The midterm (closed book) will consist of one essay chosen from several topics. You will have 1 ½ hours to complete the exam.

Please note: It is your responsibility to pick up from the Law dept. or arrange to receive from CUTV your midterm exam. I will not tell a student his or her mark over the phone or by email.

2. Final Exam - The final exam will be a university scheduled exam. The final exam may consist of a fact situation and also contain essay-style questions, with choices. Final exams are not returned to the student but are retained by the Department. If you wish to see your exam after it has been marked, please contact the department and you can arrange a time to do so.

IMPORTANT NOTE

Failure to complete any portion of the required evaluation will result in an F grade. Exams are not returned but may be reviewed with the instructor during office hours
