Academic Accommodations:

You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term. For an accommodation request the processes are as follows:

Pregnancy obligation: write to me with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details visit the Equity Services website: http://carleton.ca/equity/

Religious obligation: write to me with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details visit the Equity Services website: http://carleton.ca/equity/

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities: The Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) provides services to students with Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/mental health disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD), chronic medical conditions, and impairments in mobility, hearing, and vision. If you have a disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact PMC at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation. If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send me your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with me to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. Please consult the PMC website for the deadline to request accommodations for the formally-scheduled exam (if applicable) at http://carleton.ca/pmc/students/dates-and-deadlines/

You can visit the Equity Services website to view the policies and to obtain more detailed information on academic accommodation at http://carleton.ca/equity/

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is presenting, whether intentional or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one's own. Plagiarism includes reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else's published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one's own without proper citation or reference to the original source. Examples of sources from which the ideas, expressions of ideas or works of others may be drawn from include but are not limited to: books, articles, papers, literary compositions and phrases, performance compositions, chemical compounds, art works, laboratory reports, research results, calculations and the results of calculations, diagrams, constructions, computer reports, computer code/software, and material on the Internet. Plagiarism is a serious offence.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course explores justifications and practices of punishment and social control from a socio-legal perspective. Why do we punish? Are prisons the best option? What are the purposes of punishment? Students are encouraged to explore these issues from a critical and theoretical perspective.

EVALUATION

(All components must be completed in order to get a passing grade)

Journal 1	10%
Journal 2	25%
Journal 3	35%
Final Exam	30%

*LATE PENALITY of 5% per day will be applied to all assignments. NO EXTENSIONS will be granted except in the most extreme of circumstances.

Journals

Three times in throughout the term you are expected to turn in a journal that covers ONE of the preceding classes. This journal should be between 3 and 4 pages and should consider the following: How does this reading make me think differently about punishment?

Does this reading connect with other things I've been thinking about or other things going on in the world?

What further questions are raised as a result of the reading?

Is there anything that doesn't make sense about what the author is saying or that the author has missed? Good journals will also relate to class discussions and teaching materials. You can also incorporate into your journal news items, artistic representations of punishment, other books you've read and so on.

Materials

Where possible, I have opted for course materials available online (via web-sites or through online academic sources). Those materials not available online are available in a course pack which can be purchased from Octopus Books www.octopusbooks.ca. Octopus is located on Third Avenue in the Glebe.
