ADVANCED STUDIES IN YOUTH CULTURE AND JUVENILE JUSTICE

SUMMER 2013

Professor: Michel Vallée

Office: A707 Loeb Building

Office Hours: 90 minutes before class or by appointment

Office Phone #: 613-520-2600 ext. 2606

Email: michel_vallee@carleton.ca

Course meets: TR 1435 – 1725 A715 LA

TITLE OF SEMINAR: Youth Culture and Juvenile Justice

The aim of this seminar is to gain a better understanding of how the youth justice system in Canada deals with youth deviance and criminal behaviour. This first section of the course will focus on describing the current and past Canadian youth legislations. The second section will discuss the role of the key providers of youth justice (police, probation, NGOs, etc.) in Canada with a particular emphasis on Ontario. The third section will review youth crime trends, causation factors that put youth at risk and discuss some of the contemporary issues pertaining to at-risk children and youth and youth in conflict with the law.

PREREQUISITE: Fourth-year Standing.

SEMINAR THEMES:

The seminar is organized around three major themes about youth deviance, delinquency and criminality:

1. Legislative framework: What are some of the key factors that lead to the present legislative framework for youth in Canada and what are the core elements of the Youth Criminal Justice Act:
2. The youth justice system: Who are the key actors providing services in the Canadian youth justice system and what are their views about youth deviancy, delinquency and criminality?
3. The risks factors and their challenges for children and youth: What are some of the key elements of the risk factors, problems and challenges experienced by youth in at risk or in difficulty and how do they affect juvenile justice policies and programmes?

REQUIRED READINGS

There will be required readings. Copies will be available via Carleton WEB CT and in a coursepack that may be purchased through the Carleton University bookstore.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS – GRADING

In accordance with the Carleton University Undergraduate Calendar (p 43), the letter grades assigned in this course will have the following percentage equivalents:

A+ = 90-100	B+ = 77-79	C+ = 67-69	D+ = 56-59
A = 85-89	B = 73-76	C = 63-66	D = 53-56
A - = 80-84	B - = 70-72	C - = 60-62	D - = 50-52
F = Below 50	WDN = Withdrawn from the course

ABS = Student absent from final exam

DEF = Deferred (See above)

FND = (Failed, no Deferred) = Student could not pass the course even with 100% on final exam.

The final grade will reflect your performance on four required evaluation components of the course. These are:

(1) Mid-term team paper and in-class presentation (35 points)

The term paper will focus on a series of pre-identified topics provided under a separate cover (refer to the mid-term paper guide for more detail). Work teams composed of two individuals must submit their papers in class no later than May 23, 2013. The length of the papers will be between 9.5 and 10.5 pages double space excluding appendices, references and bibliography. Papers submitted late will be penalized 3.5 points per day late and papers not meeting the other requirements will also be penalized. A maximum of 25 points will be assigned to the actual paper and another maximum of 10 points will be assigned to the class presentation of the papers.

(2) Weekly Class Work and Participation (35 points)

A total of 15 points will be assessed for class preparation which will include the submission of reading summaries for each class to which 1.5 points will be assigned per class. With respect to the pre-class preparation work, students will have to submit, at the beginning of each class, a total of 1.5 to 2 pages typed report (double spaced) of the readings (to be specified by the professor) scheduled for discussion during class. The report will include a presentation of the key messages by the author and the formulation of a specific implications example and a related explanation paragraph. It is hoped that some of the implication suggestions will be used to stimulate class discussions. It is expected that, while only some of the readings will be summarized, all of the assigned readings be read in preparation for class discussion

A total of 30 points will be assessed for class participation. Each class presence will be assessed up to 1.5 points per class (for a maximum of 15 points). Attendance will be taken twice during the class. No points will be assessed for the first and last classes and absences will not be penalized if justified with a valid medical certificate. Finally, the professor will assign up to a maximum of 05 points to each student for class interventions and participation in discussions during the semester.

(3) End-of-term individual paper (30 points)

The end-of-term paper will consist of an interview with someone who presently works full time with young offenders (no volunteers or placement students). Papers are to be no less than 5.5 pages typed double spaced and no more than 6.5 pages typed double spaced. A list of category of persons to be interviewed and related content guidelines will be provided to the students on the first day of class. Papers not meeting the requirements will be penalized. Papers are due in class on June 18, 2013 or may be left in the Department of Sociology and Anthropology “drop slot” on that same day before 17:30. Late papers will be penalized 3.0 points per day. A complete description of the assignment requirements will be provided on the first day of class. I am obliged to inform you that signed consent forms will have to be attached to the papers or the papers will not be marked. The consent form is a critical requirement set out by the Carleton University Research Ethics guidelines.

SPECIAL NOTES

Academic Regulations, Accommodations, Plagiarism, Etc.

University rules regarding registration, withdrawal, appealing marks, and most anything else you might need to know can be found on the university’s website, here:

<http://calendar.carleton.ca/undergrad/regulations/academicregulationsoftheuniversity/>

Requests for Academic Accommodations

For Students with Disabilities:

The Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) provides services to students with Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/mental health disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD), chronic medical conditions, and impairments in mobility, hearing, and vision. If you have a disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact PMC at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation. If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send me your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with me to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. Please consult the PMC website for the deadline to request accommodations for the formally-scheduled exam (if applicable).

- The deadlines for contacting the Paul Menton Centre regarding accommodation for final exams for the June 2013 exam period is June 7, 2013 and for the August 2013 exam period is July 26, 2013.

For Religious Obligations:

Students requesting academic accommodation on the basis of religious obligation should make a formal, written request to their instructors for alternate dates and/or means of satisfying academic requirements. Such requests should be made during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist, but no later than two weeks before the compulsory event.

Accommodation is to be worked out directly and on an individual basis between the student and the instructor(s) involved. Instructors will make accommodations in a way that avoids academic disadvantage to the student.

Students or instructors who have questions or want to confirm accommodation eligibility of a religious event or practice may refer to the Equity Services website for a list of holy days and Carleton's Academic Accommodation policies, or may contact an Equity Services Advisor in the Equity Services Department for assistance.

For Pregnancy:

Pregnant students requiring academic accommodations are encouraged to contact an Equity Advisor in Equity Services to complete a letter of accommodation. The student must then make an appointment to discuss her needs with the instructor at least two weeks prior to the first academic event in which it is anticipated the accommodation will be required.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is the passing off of someone else's work as your own and is a serious academic offence. For the details of what constitutes plagiarism, the potential penalties and the procedures refer to the section on Instructional Offences in the Undergraduate Calendar.

What are the Penalties for Plagiarism?

A student found to have plagiarized an assignment may be subject to one of several penalties including: expulsion; suspension from all studies at Carleton; suspension from full-time studies; and/or a reprimand; a refusal of permission to continue or to register in a specific degree program; academic probation; award of an FNS, Fail, or an ABS.

What are the Procedures?

All allegations of plagiarism are reported to the faculty of Dean of FASS and Management. Documentation is prepared by instructors and/or departmental chairs.

The Dean writes to the student and the University Ombudsperson about the alleged plagiarism.

The Dean reviews the allegation. If it is not resolved at this level then it is referred to a tribunal appointed by the Senate.

Plagiarism and cheating at the graduate level are viewed as being particularly serious and the sanctions imposed are accordingly severe.

Students are expected to familiarize themselves with and follow the Carleton University Student Academic Integrity Policy (See <http://www2.carleton.ca/sasc/advisingcentre/academic-integrity/>). The Policy is strictly enforced and is binding on all students. Plagiarism and cheating – presenting another’s ideas, arguments, words or images as your own, using unauthorized material, misrepresentation, fabricating or misrepresenting research data, unauthorized co-operation or collaboration or completing work for another student – weaken the quality of the graduate degree. Academic dishonesty in any form will not be tolerated. Students who infringe the Policy may be subject to one of several penalties including: expulsion; suspension from all studies at Carleton; suspension from full-time studies; a refusal of permission to continue or to register in a specific degree program; academic probation; or a grade of Failure in the course.

Assistance for Students:

Writing Tutorial Services: <http://www1.carleton.ca/sasc/writing-tutorial-service/>

Peer Assisted Study Sessions (PASS): www.carleton.ca/sasc/peer-assisted-study-sessions

Important Information:

- Students must always retain a hard copy of all work that is submitted.
- All final grades are subject to the Dean’s approval.
- Please note that you will be able to link your CONNECT (MyCarleton) account to other non-CONNECT accounts and receive emails from us. However, for us to respond to your emails, we need to see your full name, CU ID, and the email must be written from your valid CONNECT address. Therefore, it would be easier to respond to your inquiries if you would send all email from your connect account. If you do not have or have yet to activate this account, you may wish to do so by visiting <https://portal.carleton.ca/>
