

OTTAWA-CARLETON STUDENT NORTHERN RESEARCH SYMPOSIUM

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

SUBMISSION DEADLINE EXTENDED: FEB 13!!!

The OCSNRS is an annual, one-day event that allows students from Carleton University and the University of Ottawa to present their northern research projects. All research fields are welcome, including social, physical and life sciences and the humanities. Paper and poster presentations are open to current undergraduate, master's and doctoral students, as well as recent graduates (since January 2014). It is an excellent way to practice presenting and gain valuable feedback from your peers!

Abstracts are welcome in French or English. Presentations may range from project proposals to publication ready results. Northern research eligibility is defined using the same criteria as the Northern Scientific Training Program.

Where: Carleton University

When: March 6

Submit applications to: marcus.phillips@carleton.ca

For more information visit: www.carleton.ca/northernresearch/ocsnrs

Submitted abstracts must include:

- (1) The names of all authors with the presenting author and institutional affiliation indicated
- (2) The student's department, program type (BA, BSc, MA, MSc, PhD, etc), and supervisor's name
- (3) The presentation title
- (4) Preference for an oral or a poster presentation
- (5) An abstract of 250 words maximum, which should include a brief introduction to your topic, research objectives, approach/methods and key findings.