II. Description

John Rawls is arguably the most influential political philosopher in the analytic tradition. In this seminar, we will read two of Rawls' most important works: A Theory of Justice and Political Liberalism.

III. Prerequisites

Eligibility for fourth-year standing in a Philosophy Honours Program or permission of the department.

IV. Readings

- 1) John Rawls, A Theory of Justice: Revised Edition, Belknap Press, 1999.
- 2) John Rawls, Political Liberalism: Expanded Edition, Columbia University Press, 2005.

Both books can be purchased through the Carleton University Bookstore and are on reserve at the MacOdrum Library.

V. Assignments and Grading (Please see the Course Schedule for assignment deadlines and presentation dates)

- a. Class Attendance and Participation (worth 15% of the final grade).
- b. Three Assignments (the best of which worth 30% of the final grade, the other two 20%)
- c. Weekly Questions (jointly worth 15% of your final grade).

VI. Policies

Attendance. Attendance is mandatory. If you are absent, you are responsible for finding out what has been covered in class and for any course-related announcements. If unforeseen circumstances are preventing you from attending class regularly, it is your responsibility to inform me as soon as possible.

Readings. You are responsible for consulting the Course Schedule online before each class to find out the readings for that class and for reading each of them carefully. Please be aware that, if you don't do the readings, you are very unlikely to do well in this course.

Communications. You are responsible for checking regularly your Carleton email account for course-related messages and announcements. You are also responsible for checking regularly the Course Schedule online for any changes or updates.

Assignments. Instructions for each assignment will be sent to your Carleton email account about two weeks before the assignment is due. Please follow those instructions very carefully, as failure to do so may result in penalties. If you have not received the instructions for an assignment two weeks prior to the deadline for that assignment, it is your responsibility to contact me contact me to let me know.

The deadline for each assignment is at 11:59pm of the day the assignment is due (see the Course Schedule for Assignment Deadlines). Unless I have granted you an extension in writing (see below), 5 points will be subtracted from your grade for every day the assignment is late. Late assignments will be marked but not commented upon in writing. If you wish to receive detailed feedback on a late assignment, you will have to make an appointment with me to discuss it. Failing to submit an assignment will result in a 0% on that assignment.

Each assignment must be exclusively the work of the individual student submitting it. Please be aware that plagiarism and unauthorized collaboration are very serious academic offences (see below) and that I am bound to report any suspected academic offence directly to the Office of the Dean.

Weekly Discussion Questions. Discussion Questions are to be submitted by e-mail each week before the beginning of the seminar meeting (with the exception of the first meeting and of those meetings in which you are doing a presentation). The subject line of the message should read 'PHIL 4330 Discussion Questions for [date]'. (e.g. 'PHIL 4330 Discussion Questions for October 23') You are expected to submit one Interpretive Question and one Evaluative Question for each chapter to be read for that day. Examples of Interpretive Questions are questions such as 'What do you think is the argument in the x^{th} paragraph of page y ?' or 'What do you think the author means when s/he says ' x ' on page y ?''. Examples of Evaluative Questions are questions such as 'Do you think that the argument for x on page y succeeds?' or 'Do you think that the author is correct in claiming that x on page y ?''. Everything else being equal, specific questions (i.e. questions that refer to a specific sentence or paragraph) are preferable to general questions. In class, students will take turn to ask their questions. Each student is expected to offer a reasoned answer to the question they ask. Failing to submit your discussion questions on time will result in a 0% for that week.

Drafts. While I am happy to answer any general questions about you might have about your assignments, please be advised that I am not able to provide any feedback on draft assignments.

Extensions. Extensions will be granted only in extraordinary circumstances (e.g. serious illness or family emergency) and only if the extension is requested in writing before the assignment deadline. If you think you may need an extension, please contact me as soon as possible by e-mail.

Academic Integrity. You are responsible for ensuring that you understand the nature of academic offences (such as plagiarism and unauthorized collaboration), as defined in the Undergraduate Calendar (see here), and to avoid both committing them and aiding or abetting academic offences perpetrated by other students. Please be aware that I am bound to report any suspected academic offence directly to the Office of the Dean.

Final Grades. All final grades are subject to the approval of the Dean.

VII. Schedule

The Course Schedule can be found online. It contains a reading schedule, as well as other important course information, such as presentations and assignment deadlines. Please check the Course Schedule regularly for any updates and changes.

Assignments:

Unless specifically told otherwise by their instructors, students:

- must not use a plastic or cardboard cover or paper clips
- must staple the paper (there is a stapler on the essay box)
- must include the following:
 - student name
 - student number
 - course number and section
 - instructor's name
- No assignments will be accepted after the last day for handing in term work – see dates in next column.
- Assignments handed in through the essay box (just inside the glass doors, Paterson Hall, Floor 3A) must be dropped into the box by 4:15 on a regular business day in order to be date-stamped with that day's date. Assignments handed in after 4:15 or on a non-business day will be stamped as having been handed in on the next business day.
- Students are required to keep copies of their assignments. If your paper is lost at any point, you will be considered not to have submitted it if you cannot produce a copy immediately on request.

Deferrals for Term Work:

If you miss a final examination and/or fail to submit a final assignment by the due date because of circumstances beyond your control, you may apply for a deferral of examination/assignment. For deferred examinations (both formally scheduled and take-homes), you must apply within 3 working days after the scheduled date of the exam. To apply for deferral of a final assignment, you must apply within 3 working days of the last scheduled day of classes. Visit the Registrar's Office for more information.

Plagiarism:

It is the responsibility of each student to understand the meaning of 'plagiarism' as defined in the Undergraduate or Graduate Calendars, and to avoid both committing plagiarism and aiding or abetting plagiarism by other students. (Undergraduate Calendar Academic Regulations, section 14.3, or <http://calendar.carleton.ca/undergrad/regulations/academicregulationsoftheuniversity/acadregsuniv14/>)

Academic Accommodation:

You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term. For an accommodation request the processes are as follows:

Pregnancy obligation: write to your professor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details visit the Equity Services website: <http://www2.carleton.ca/equity/>

Religious obligation: write to your professor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details visit the Equity Services website: <http://www2.carleton.ca/equity/>

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities: The Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) provides services to students with Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/mental health disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD), chronic medical conditions, and impairments in mobility, hearing, and vision. If you have a disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact PMC at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation. If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). Requests made within two weeks will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis. After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with your professor to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. Please consult the PMC website for the deadline to request accommodations for the formally-scheduled exam (if applicable) at <http://www2.carleton.ca/pmc/new-and-current-students/dates-and-deadlines/>

You can visit the Equity Services website to view the policies and to obtain more detailed information on academic accommodation at <http://www2.carleton.ca/equity/>
