Professor: Wendy Donner, Professor of Philosophy

Office: Room 3A47 Paterson Hall Phone: 520-2600 ext. 3943

Email: wendy_donner@carleton.ca

Office Hours: Thursday 3:30-5:00 or by appointment

COURSE DESCRIPTION

In this seminar we will explore John Stuart Mill's moral and political philosophy, with emphasis on recent scholarship. We will begin by examining the elements of his utilitarian moral philosophy, including his theory of value and the structure of the Art of Life (Morality, Justice, Virtue and Aesthetics). We will then go on to consider other topics including liberty, democratic education, liberalism and democracy, liberal feminism and environmental philosophy. The goal throughout will be to examine Mill's major writings such as Utilitarianism, On Liberty, Representative Government and The Subjection of Women in the light of recent commentary and scholarship.

NOTES

1. Students will do two oral presentations and hand in two 1000-1250 word papers.
2. The research proposal should be 1-2 pages, or 250-500 words. It should include a bibliography in addition to the 1-2 pages. The bibliography should include 5-10 sources.
I recommend that you set up a meeting to discuss your proposal with me. It is not required, but suggested.
3. The take-home exam should be 15-18 pages or 3800-4500 words.

Policies and Regulations

Due Dates for Term Assignments:

Extensions for term assignments will be granted only for documented medical reasons or personal emergencies. Students should consult with me if at all possible prior to the deadline if an extension is required. Assignments handed in late without an extension will be penalized. The penalty for late term assignments will be a deduction of 2 marks out of 100 for each working day past the due date, up to the final deadline for term work. Beyond this Senate-defined deadline, only official deferrals petitioned through the Registrar's Office will be honored.

Students who are unable to complete a final paper because of illness or other circumstances beyond their control or whose performance on an examination has been impaired by such circumstances may apply within five working days to the Registrar's Office for permission to extend a term paper deadline. Permission can be granted only if the request is fully and specifically supported by a medical certificate or other relevant documents.

Students must hand in term assignments directly to me or to the Philosophy Department locked essay box, located in the hallway of Paterson 3A. Students should not under any circumstances put term assignments under my door or in my mailbox. It is the policy of the Department of Philosophy that essays transmitted to the Department by FAX will not be accepted. I do not accept assignments submitted by email.

It is crucial that students retain a hard copy of all assignments submitted in every course.

Seminar Presentations:

Attendance at and performance of your seminar presentation is compulsory. Failure to do your presentation will normally result in no mark for that presentation and F for the course. If an absence from your presentation is justified to me by a letter from a medical doctor, or lawyer, or another acceptable written excuse and if I am contacted regarding the absence prior to or as soon as possible after the absence, you will not be penalized. In such circumstances I will reschedule the presentation or, at my discretion, assign a make-up assignment.

Academic Integrity and Academic Offences, especially Plagiarism:

Students are expected to read and abide by the policies stated in the calendar. University regulations stipulate that allegations of plagiarism, cheating or any violations of examination conduct rules will be thoroughly reviewed. Each case must be reported to the Dean, who investigates each allegation. If there is no resolution following this investigation at the Dean's level, a tribunal will be appointed by the Senate to review the case and make a final decision.

Webster's Dictionary defines plagiarism as stealing.

Plagiarism is the submission of someone else's writing/ideas/work as your own. All ideas presented which are not your own must be properly referenced. While forms of plagiarism may vary, each involves verbatim or near verbatim presentation of the writings or ideas of others' as one's own without adequately acknowledging the original source.

Plagiarism includes (but is not limited to) copying from a book, article or another student, downloading material or ideas from the internet, or otherwise submitting someone else's work or ideas as your own.

Academic Freedom

Students enrolling this course are advised that studying literature, culture and ideas, including those of societies other than their own, will expose them to unfamiliar and sometimes provocative attitudes, images, language and values. All participants in the course must be willing to examine the relevant texts, must make a sincere effort to understand the presuppositions of others, and be willing to discuss, verbally and in writing, the objects of study. By enrolling in this course, students accept a commitment to academic freedom for all participants, themselves, and the professor.

Academic Accommodation Policy for Students with Disabilities: The Paul Menton Centre:

Students with special needs/disabilities will be given accommodations according to their needs and abilities. It is recommended that these individuals contact the course director. These students are required to register with the Paul Menton Centre in order to obtain a Letter of Accommodation for alternative arrangements.

Please make an appointment to meet with a Centre staff person to discuss your needs. Completed forms must be submitted to the Center for formally scheduled exam accommodations.

Department of Philosophy and Carleton University Policies (2012-13)

Assignments:

Unless specifically told otherwise by their instructors, students:

- must not use a plastic or cardboard cover or paper clips
- must staple the paper (there is a stapler on the essay box)
- must include the following in the lower right corner of the cover sheet:
 - student name
 - student number
 - course number and section
 - instructor's name
- The Philosophy Department does not accept assignments by FAX. You may send them by courier, if necessary.
- No assignments will be accepted after the last day for handing in term work – see dates in next column.
- Assignments handed in through the essay box (just inside the glass doors, Paterson Hall, Floor 3A) must be dropped into the box by 4:15 on a regular business day in order to be date-stamped with that day's date. Assignments handed in after 4:15 or on a non-business day will be stamped as having been handed in on the next business day.
- Students are required to keep copies of their assignments. If your paper is lost at any point, you will be considered not to have submitted it if you cannot produce a copy immediately on request.

Deferrals for Term Work:

If you miss a final examination and/or fail to submit a final assignment by the due date because of circumstances beyond your control, you may apply for a deferral of examination/assignment. For deferred examinations, you must apply within 5 working days after the scheduled date of your exam. To apply for deferral of a final assignment, you must apply within 5 working days of the last scheduled day of classes. Visit the Registrar's Office for more information.

Plagiarism:

It is the responsibility of each student to understand the meaning of 'plagiarism' as defined in the Undergraduate or Graduate Calendars, and to avoid both committing plagiarism and aiding or abetting plagiarism by other students. (Undergraduate Calendar Academic Regulations, section 14.3, or <http://www4.carleton.ca/calendars//ugrad/current/regulations/acadregsuniv14.html#14.3>)

Academic Accommodation for Students with Disabilities:

The Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) provides services to students with Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/mental health disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD), chronic medical conditions, and impairments in mobility, hearing, and vision. If you have a disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact PMC at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation. If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send me your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with me to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. Please consult the PMC website for the deadline to request accommodations for the formally-scheduled exam (if applicable).

You can visit the Equity Services website to view the policies and to obtain more detailed information on academic accommodation at <http://carleton.ca/equity/accommodation>.
