

COURSE OUTLINE: PHIL 3003
18th CENTURY PHILOSOPHY

Winter 2015: Mondays and Wednesdays, 1:05 PM – 2:25 PM, Southam Hall 417

Professor Melissa Frankel
Office: Paterson Hall 3A53
Office Hours: TBA
Email: Melissa_frankel@carleton.ca

Course description:

European philosophy of the 18th century. Representative works of writers such as Berkeley, Hume, and Kant.

Prerequisite: 0.5 credit in philosophy and second-year standing in a philosophy program, or permission of the department.

Required text (available at the Carleton bookstore):

1. Modern Philosophy: An Anthology of Primary Sources. Eds. Roger Ariew and Eric Watkins. Hackett 2010.

Note: Many of the primary sources in this anthology can be found online. However, some online sources are abridged or otherwise altered. If you wish to consult an online source, you must discuss this with me, so I can help you evaluate whether or not the source is appropriate.

Some of you may wish to purchase primary sources on their own (rather than in an anthology.) If you wish to do this, please let me know. I will be happy to recommend specific (unabridged) editions of the texts.

Course material may sometimes include some readings that are not in the required text. Those readings will either be available on cuLearn or through the Carleton library website.

cuLearn:

Please note that this course will be supported by the cuLearn Course Management System. A variety of resources may be made available through the cuLearn site, including some readings for the course. You can access your cuLearn account by going to www.carleton.ca/culearn and entering your MyCarletonOne username and password.

Students will be fully responsible for reading and responding appropriately to all information distributed to students through the cuLearn Course Page. Information provided on this page will be considered to have been provided to all registered students within 24 hours of posting.

Evaluation:

1. Tests – There will be two in-class closed-book mid-term tests, each worth 25% of your final grade. You will be permitted to bring a one-page, double-sided “cheat sheet” to each test, upon which you may write whatever you like.
2. Examination – There will be one take-home examination, due at the end of final exam period (April 23rd, 2015.) The exam will be essay-based and will count towards 50% of your final grade.

Course policies:

1. Lateness/extensions – The take-home exam is due on the final day of exam period. It is university policy that no student work may be accepted after the final day of exam period. As such, I will not be accepting late papers, and no extensions will be granted.

Philosophy department and university policies: see final page of course outline.

Department of Philosophy and Carleton University Policies (2014-15)

Assignments:

Unless specifically told otherwise by their instructors, students:

- must not use a plastic or cardboard cover or paper clips
- must staple the paper (there is a stapler on the essay box)
- must include the following:
 - student name
 - student number
 - course number and section
 - instructor's name
- The Philosophy Department does not accept assignments by FAX. You may send them by courier, if necessary.
- No assignments will be accepted after the last day for handing in term work – see dates in next column.
- Assignments handed in through the essay box (just inside the glass doors, Paterson Hall, Floor 3A) must be dropped into the box by 4:15 on a regular business day in order to be date-stamped with that day's date. Assignments handed in after 4:15 or on a non-business day will be stamped as having been handed in on the next business day.
- Students are required to keep copies of their assignments. If your paper is lost at any point, you will be considered not to have submitted it if you cannot produce a copy immediately on request.

Deferrals for Term Work:

If you miss a final examination and/or fail to submit a final assignment by the due date because of circumstances beyond your control, you may apply for a deferral of examination/assignment. For deferred examinations, you must apply within 5 working days after the scheduled date of your exam. To apply for deferral of a final assignment, you must apply within 5 working days of the last scheduled day of classes. Visit the Registrar's Office for more information.

Plagiarism:

It is the responsibility of each student to understand the meaning of 'plagiarism' as defined in the Undergraduate or Graduate Calendars, and to avoid both committing plagiarism and aiding or abetting plagiarism by other students. (Undergraduate Calendar Academic Regulations, section 14.3, or <http://calendar.carleton.ca/undergrad/regulations/academicregulationsoftheuniversity/acadregsuniv14/>)

Academic Accommodation:

You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term. For an accommodation request the processes are as follows:

Pregnancy obligation: write to your professor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details visit the Equity Services website: <http://www2.carleton.ca/equity/>

Religious obligation: write to your professor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details visit the Equity Services website: <http://www2.carleton.ca/equity/>

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities: The Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) provides services to students with Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/mental health disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD), chronic medical conditions, and impairments in mobility, hearing, and vision. If you have a disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact PMC at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation. If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with your professor to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. Please consult the PMC website for the deadline to request accommodations for the formally-scheduled exam (if applicable) at <http://www2.carleton.ca/pmc/new-and-current-students/dates-and-deadlines/>

You can visit the Equity Services website to view the policies and to obtain more detailed information on academic accommodation at <http://www2.carleton.ca/equity/>
