Course description

This course is designed to give students both an institutional overview of the U.S. system of federal government, as well as insight into the broader political, economic and cultural landscape of the U.S. Of central concern is the institutional framework of the three separate and co-equal federal branches (legislative, executive and judicial – Congress, the Presidency, and the Courts). Only by understanding the historical origins and dynamics of interaction of the three branches can we fully comprehend the complexities of U.S. politics. The course material is framed around a distinction between the concepts of government (the specific elements and institutions of the state) and politics (the broader social, political and economic actions within the state and civil society that determine who gets what, how and why). Thus, the course focuses partly on the “how questions”, or the central institutions within the three branches of American government, the U.S. Constitution, the electoral process, political parties and the details of creating and implementing laws and rules. Complementing this will be an analysis of American politics whereby we will address important “why questions.” To this end, we will explore key themes such as race, class, the activity of money and corporations, parties, elections, rights, and liberties. The combination of these two approaches will give students a more complete understanding of the political, economic, and cultural landscapes in the United States.

Course Texts

- American Government: Power and Purpose, Theodore J. Lowi, et al., Brief 12th edition, WW Norton, 2012, ISBN: 9780393912081 (pbk.)
- A Guide to the US Constitution, Erin Ackerman & Benjamin Ginsberg, 2nd edition, WW Norton, 2011, ISBN: 9780393912883 (pbk.)
- Barack Obama and the New America: The 2012 Election and the Changing Face of Politics, Larry Sabato (ed.), Rowman & Littlefield, 2013, ISBN: 9781442222649 (pbk.)

- The books are available at Haven Bookstore (43 Seneca St. @ Seneca & Sunnyside) in one package (basically, the Ackerman & Ginsberg book has been included for free by the publisher).
- The Lowi book is also available from the publisher as an e-book at a reduced price; see here for the downloadable version and here for the online version. However, if you buy the book in this format, you won't get the Ackerman & Ginsberg book. You can still find the Constitution and other documents in other places.

Evaluation

- Midterm Exam 30% (in class on May 27th)
- Final Exam 40% (during official exam period, date/time TBA)
- Book Review Essay – 30% (due June 17th)

All components of the course must be completed in order to pass. For instance, if you don't submit the essay, you will receive a failing mark (FND: "Failure with no deferred final examination allowed. The grade FND is assigned only when the student has failed the course on the basis of inadequate term work as specified in the Course Outline. FND is assigned 0.0 grade points.")

Details regarding Term Work and Final Exam

The book review essay may be submitted in hard copy in class on or before June 17th, or you can send it to me by email at tattwood@connect.carleton.ca (Please put "PSCI2200 Book Review" in the subject line and attach it as a Word or PDF file). Your email must be sent by 6:00pm on June 17th or it will be marked as late. Do not use the PSCI drop box unless your paper is late.

Assignments submitted late will be penalized 5% of the value of the assignment per day late, to a maximum of 10 days, after which the assignment will receive a grade of zero. Weekends are included in the calculation of late penalties.

You must provide appropriate documentation for requests of an extension on medical grounds. See "Academic Accommodations" below for additional exceptions.

- Midterm exam (30%): An in-class midterm exam will be given on Monday, May 27th. The exam will take place in our regular classroom and you will have the full three hours of class time to write it. No lecture will be given that day. The midterm exam will consist of multiple choice questions, terms/definitions, and short answer questions. You will have a choice for the terms and short answer questions. The midterm exam will cover material from Lowi Chaps. 2, 3, 4, and the Ackerman & Ginsberg book. No make-up exam will be allowed except under the most serious circumstances and upon the presentation of documented evidence. I may change the format of a make-up exam.
- Final Exam (40%): The final exam will consist of multiple choice, definitions, and short answer questions. The final exam is NOT cumulative. The final exam will take place during the official exam period (June 21-26). It will cover material from Lowi Chaps. 5, 6, 8, 10, and 11. You will have three hours to complete it.

➤ Book Review Essay (30%): For this assignment, you will need to read the Larry Sabato book Barack Obama and the New America. While you are encouraged to read the entire book for context, the following sections are required for the paper: Chapter 1 and any THREE of the following chapters – 2, 3, 5, 6, 7, 10, 11, 12, 13. Your paper should be divided into about 2/3rd review and summary of the main ideas and 1/3rd analysis and commentary. Additional sources are not required, but you are welcome to use any if you wish as long as they are not the major part of the essay. What is the bigger picture significance of what the authors are saying? What are the implications of the points they are making? In short, I want to see your thoughts and reflections on what you got from reading the chapters. However, your paper is not just throwing out your opinion on what you liked or didn't like about the reading. I want you to address the material in a systematic and analytical way. You are welcome to agree or disagree (or both!) with the point of view of the authors. There are poorly written papers, but there is no "right answer" here. Ultimately, this is a somewhat open project with scope for your own thoughts. Your essay should be 5-6 pages (1.5 spacing, 12 point font, 0.5" margins). Please include a title page and a works cited page (which don't count in the page total) and ensure that you follow a consistent, acceptable citation style.

Academic Accommodations

The Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) provides services to students with Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/mental health disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD), chronic medical conditions, and impairments in mobility, hearing, and vision. If you have a disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact PMC at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation. If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send me your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with me to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. Please consult the PMC website for the deadline to request accommodations for the formally-scheduled exam (if applicable).

For Religious Observance: Students requesting accommodation for religious observances should apply in writing to their instructor for alternate dates and/or means of satisfying academic requirements. Such requests should be made during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist, but no later than two weeks before the compulsory academic event. Accommodation is to be worked out directly and on an individual basis between the student and the instructor(s) involved. Instructors will make accommodations in a way that avoids academic disadvantage to the student. Instructors and students may contact an Equity Services Advisor for assistance (www.carleton.ca/equity).

For Pregnancy: Pregnant students requiring academic accommodations are encouraged to contact an Equity Advisor in Equity Services to complete a letter of accommodation. Then, make an appointment to discuss your needs with the instructor at least two weeks prior to the first academic event in which it is anticipated the accommodation will be required.

Plagiarism: The University Senate defines plagiarism as “presenting, whether intentional or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one’s own.” This can include:

- reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else’s published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one’s own without proper citation or reference to the original source;
- submitting a take-home examination, essay, laboratory report or other assignment written, in whole or in part, by someone else;
- using ideas or direct, verbatim quotations, or paraphrased material, concepts, or ideas without appropriate acknowledgment in any academic assignment;
- using another’s data or research findings;
- failing to acknowledge sources through the use of proper citations when using another’s works and/or failing to use quotation marks;
- handing in "substantially the same piece of work for academic credit more than once without prior written permission of the course instructor in which the submission occurs.

Plagiarism is a serious offence which cannot be resolved directly with the course’s instructor. The Associate Deans of the Faculty conduct a rigorous investigation, including an interview with the student, when an instructor suspects a piece of work has been plagiarized. Penalties are not trivial. They include a mark of zero for the plagiarized work or a final grade of "F" for the course.

Oral Examination: At the discretion of the instructor, students may be required to pass a brief oral examination on research papers and essays.

Submission and Return of Term Work: Papers must be handed directly to the instructor and will not be date-stamped in the departmental office. Late assignments may be submitted to the drop box in the corridor outside B640 Loeb. Assignments will be retrieved every business day at 4 p.m., stamped with that day's date, and then distributed to the instructor. For essays not returned in class please attach a stamped, self-addressed envelope if you wish to have your assignment returned by mail. Please note that assignments sent via fax or email will not be accepted. Final exams are intended solely for the purpose of evaluation and will not be returned.

Grading: Assignments and exams will be graded with a percentage grade. To convert this to a letter grade or to the university 12-point system, please refer to the following table.

Percentage	Letter grade	12-point scale	Percentage	Letter grade	12-point scale
90-100	A+	12	67-69	C+	6
85-89	A	11	63-66	C	5
80-84	A-	10	60-62	C-	4
77-79	B+	9	57-59	D+	3
73-76	B	8	53-56	D	2
70-72	B-	7	50-52	D-	1

Grades: Final grades are derived from the completion of course assignments. Failure to write the final exam will result in the grade ABS. Deferred final exams are available ONLY if the student is in good standing in the course.

Approval of final grades: Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor subject to the approval of the Faculty Dean. This means that grades submitted by an instructor may be subject to revision. No grades are final until they have been approved by the Dean.

Connect Email Accounts: All email communication to students from the Department of Political Science will be via Connect. Important course and University information is also distributed via the Connect email system. It is the student's responsibility to monitor their Connect account.
