

The Embassy of Japan, the Centre for Monetary and Financial Economics (CMFE), and the Department of Economics at Carleton University are pleased to present a special lecture on:

The Global Financial Crisis and Financial Linkages in the Asia-Pacific Region

by Dr. Akira Kohsaka

Professor, School of International Studies Kwansai Gakuin University, Hyogo, Japan; specialist in international economics and development economics

Admission is free

Wednesday, November 2, 2011 at 6:00 p.m.
Room 3275, Mackenzie Building, Carleton University
1125 Colonel By Drive, Ottawa

Professor Akira Kohsaka currently teaches at the School of International Studies, Kwansai Gakuin University, Hyogo, Japan. He previously taught at Osaka University (1994–2011), where he was the Dean of the Osaka School of International Public Policy (OSIPP). He is also Vice President of the East Asian Economic Association (since 2001), and was the editor of the Asian Economic Journal (2001–2006). He has done consulting work for the Economic Council of the Economic Planning Agency (now Cabinet Office) and for the Ministry of Economy Trade and Industry (METI) of Japan. His fields of interest include international economics and development economics. He received his Ph.D. in economics from Stanford University in 1984.

For more information, please visit www.carleton.ca/cmfe

