

The Florence Bird Lecture Series

NEITHER, NOR: HOW TO CIRCUMNAVIGATE THE GENDER BINARY IN SEVEN THOUSAND EASY STEPS

Photo: Robin Toma Photography

Ivan Coyote is a writer, storyteller, musician and educator. Ivan is the author of eleven books, and the creator of three albums, four short films, and a renowned live performer. Ivan has been the writer in residence at Carleton, Western, the University of Winnipeg, and the Vancouver Public Library, and has lectured at universities and colleges across the continent. Their books include Loose End, Boys Like Her, Missed Her, Gender Failure, and the soon to be released Tomboy Survival Guide.

March 7, 2016
1:00pm-2:30pm
303 Paterson Hall

Contact Information:
claire.ryan@carleton.ca
613-520-6645
carleton.ca/womensstudies/florence-bird-lecture/

Thank you to the following contributors: Institute of Interdisciplinary Studies, Department of Sociology and Anthropology, Department of English Language and Literature, College of the Humanities