The Use and Abuse of History:
Humanitarianism, and Development Policy
in Africa and the Caribbean

Prof. A. Diptee
AFRI 4000 / HIST 4915F

Winter 2017

Professor:  A. Diptee
Email: audra.diptee@carleton.ca
Office: 441 Paterson Hall
Phone: 613-520-2600 x 4203 (during office hours only)

Office Hours:  Monday 1-2pm.  Also available by appointment.

Please Note:  Students should be advised that email is the preferred means of communication for this course.  Students who leave voicemail messages will find this a less efficient way to have issues resolved than those who communicate by email.

Seminar Schedule:  Monday, 2:30-5:30.

Course Description:  This course explores the ways in which particular understandings of the past have influenced the shaping of development policy, humanitarianism, and human rights discourses.  One of the objectives will be to introduce students to theoretical and methodological approaches that will enable critical and sophisticated analyses of discourses produced in various public arenas.  The course will interrogate key concepts such as progress, development, and globalization (among others).  Throughout the term, students will also analyze specific case studies in Africa and the Caribbean.  There will be two writing assignments for this course.  The first essay will be a concept paper.  For this assignment, students will be required to critically engage with one of the concepts or theories addressed in the course.  The second longer assignment will require students to offer a critical assessment of the ways in which the methods of critical applied history might engage with discourses produced in the development, human rights, and humanitarian sectors.  During the seminar, students will also be required to facilitate discussions and make short presentations on the readings each week.

Course Requirements

1. ALL students must have access to the university online learning system (CU Learn). This requires having a university email account. If you do not have one, get one as soon as possible. ALL online course communication will be done via the online learning system.
2. Students are expected to attend classes, read assigned readings, and participate fully in class discussions, exercises, and activities.
3. Assignments are expected to reflect an understanding of the readings assigned and the themes discussed in class.
4. ALL written assignments MUST be submitted on the university online learning system and a hardcopy must also be submitted IN CLASS.
5. Students must receive a passing grade in all components of the assigned work in order to pass this course.

Late Submissions

There will be late penalties for all essays and research proposals. Essays will be penalized a half grade for each day the essay is late. For example, a B+ essay that is one day late will receive a grade of B, if it is two days late it will receive a grade of C+, and if it is three days late it will receive a grade C.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism – using another’s ideas, words or images as your own – is a serious academic offence and will not be tolerated. Please see the Carleton University Student Academic Integrity Policy (http://www1.carleton.ca/studentaffairs/academic-integrity/). All sources should be referenced properly in your assignments (in-text citations and bibliography) following the Chicago Manual of Style (History).

Course Evaluation

Essay & Presentation guidelines will be uploaded on CU Learn.

1) Draft of Essay 1 - due February 13, 2017
   • Pass / Fail assessment
2) Essay 1 (40%) – due February 17, 2017 (To be Uploaded on CU Learn)
3) Project Presentations – Pass / Fail (schedule placed on CU Learn)
4) Writing Assignment 2 (40%) - April 3, 2017. (To be Uploaded on CU Learn)
5) Class Participation (20%) – See grading rubric below.
Class Participation

Each week the professor will assign specific students to prepare a 10 minute presentation on the assigned readings. All other students are required to prepare three discussion questions (drawn from issues addressed in the assigned readings) for the seminar. The professor will also select a student to facilitate the class discussion each week. The class facilitator should demonstrate a command of the readings.

Please see the grading scheme below. Participation implies, but is not restricted to, regular attendance. Class discussion will be grounded in the weekly readings, so students must demonstrate that they have a grasp of the literature assigned. Students should be able to demonstrate that they have read the required readings by their active participation and involvement in class discussion.

A+/A/A- A student receiving a grade in the A range:

- Always comes to class having done the readings
- Contributes readily to the conversation but does not dominate it
- Makes thoughtful contributions that advance the conversation
- Shows interest in and respect for others’ views
- Has an excellent attendance record

B+/B/B- A student receiving a grade in the B range:

- Almost always comes to class having done the readings
- Makes thoughtful comments when called upon
- Shows interest in and respect for others’ views
- Has a very good attendance record

C+/C/C- A student receiving a grade in the C range:

- Participates in discussion, but may have difficulty doing so at times
- Make rambling or tangential contributions
- Bluff their way when unprepared or otherwise dominate discussions
- May or may not have a good attendance record

D+/D/D- A student receiving a grade in the D range:

- Does not voluntarily contribute to discussions
- Gives only minimal answers when called upon
- Has not demonstrated their command of the course material
- May or may not have a good attendance record

F A student receiving a F grade:

- Has given no evidence that they have engaged with course material
- Has not demonstrated that they have developed a university level understanding of the course themes.
- Attends less than 50% of the seminars.

REGULATIONS COMMON TO ALL HISTORY COURSES

COPIES OF WRITTEN WORK SUBMITTED
Always retain for yourself a copy of all essays, term papers, written assignments or take-home tests submitted in your courses.

PLAGIARISM
The University Senate defines plagiarism as “presenting, whether intentionally or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one’s own.” This can include:

- reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else’s published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one’s own without proper citation or reference to the original source;
- submitting a take home examination, essay, laboratory report or other assignment written, in whole or in part, by someone else;
- using ideas or direct, verbatim quotations, or paraphrased material, concepts, or ideas without appropriate acknowledgment in any academic assignment;
- using another’s data or research findings;
- failing to acknowledge sources through the use of proper citations when using another’s works and/or failing to use quotation marks;
- handing in “substantially the same piece of work for academic credit more than once without prior written permission of the course instructor in which the submission occurs.”

Plagiarism is a serious offence which cannot be resolved directly with the course’s instructor. The Associate Dean of the Faculty conducts a rigorous investigation, including an interview with the student, when an instructor suspects a piece of work has been plagiarized. Penalties are not trivial. They can include a final grade of “F” for the course.

COURSE SHARING WEBSITES and COPYRIGHT
Classroom teaching and learning activities, including lectures, discussions, presentations, etc., by both instructors and students, are copy protected and remain the intellectual property of their respective author(s). All course materials, including PowerPoint presentations, outlines, and other materials, are also protected by copyright and remain the intellectual property of their respective author(s).

Students registered in the course may take notes and make copies of course materials for their own educational use only. Students are not permitted to reproduce or distribute lecture notes and course materials publicly for commercial or non-commercial purposes without express written consent from the copyright holder(s).

STATEMENT ON CLASS CONDUCT
The Carleton University Human Rights Policies and Procedures affirm that all members of the University community share a responsibility to:

- promote equity and fairness,
- respect and value diversity,
- prevent discrimination and harassment, and
- preserve the freedom of its members to carry out responsibly their scholarly work without threat of interference.

Carleton University Equity Services states that “every member of the University community has a right to study, work and live in a safe environment free of discrimination or harassment”. [In May of 2001 Carleton University’s Senate and Board of Governors approved the Carleton University Human Rights Policies and Procedures. The establishment of these policies and procedures was the culmination of the efforts of the Presidential Advisory Committee on Human Rights and a Human Rights Implementation Committee.

GRADING SYSTEM
Letter grades assigned in this course will have the following percentage equivalents:

- A+ = 90-100 (12)
- A = 85-89 (11)
- A- = 80-84 (10)
- B+ = 77-79 (9)
- B = 73-76 (8)
- B- = 70-72 (7)
- C+ = 67-69 (6)
- C = 63-66 (5)
- C- = 60-62 (4)
- D+ = 57-59 (3)
- D = 53-56 (2)

- F Failure. No academic credit
- WDN Withdrawn from the course
- ABS Absent from the final examination
- DEF Official deferral (see "Petitions to Defer")
- FND Failure with no deferred exam allowed -- assigned only when the student has failed the course on the basis of inadequate term work as specified in the course outline.

Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor subject to the approval of the Faculty Dean. This means that grades submitted by the instructor may be subject to revision. No grades are final until they have been approved by the Dean.

WITHDRAWAL WITHOUT ACADEMIC PENALTY
The last date to withdraw from Fall/Winter and Winter term courses is April 7, 2017.

REQUESTS FOR ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATION
You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term because of disability, pregnancy or religious obligations. Please review the course outline promptly and write to the instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist.

Students with disabilities requiring academic accommodations in this course must register with the Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) for a formal evaluation of disability-related needs. Documented disabilities could include but are not limited to mobility/physical impairments, specific Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/psychological disabilities, sensory disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), and chronic medical conditions. Registered PMC students are required to contact the PMC, 613-520-6608, every term to ensure that your Instructor receives your Letter of Accommodation, no later than two weeks before the first assignment is due or the first in-class test/midterm requiring accommodations. If you only require accommodations for your formally scheduled exam(s) in this course, please submit your request for accommodations to PMC by March 10, 2017 for the winter term. You can visit the Equity Services website to view the policies and to obtain more detailed information on academic accommodation at http://carleton.ca/equity/accommodation

PETITIONS TO DEFER
Students unable to complete a final term paper or write a final examination because of illness or other circumstances beyond their control or whose performance on an examination has been impaired by such circumstances may apply within five working days to the Registrar's Office for permission to extend a term paper deadline or to write a deferred examination. The request must be fully and specifically supported by a medical certificate or other relevant documentation. Only deferral petitions submitted to the Registrar’s Office will be considered.
