

Course Description

Every story that we are told about Africa today is grounded in certain assumptions about Africa and Africans. What we know (and do not know) about the continent affects the ways in which we interpret, understand, and imagine present day Africa. It affects the stories that we individually tell about Africa, our politics, and even our attitudes towards public policy.

This interdisciplinary seminar prepares students to critically assess the ways in which Africa is presented in various arenas. Through an analysis of three topics, students will study, explore, and critique representations of Africa in the media, popular culture, and other arenas of narration. The course will also contemplate the untold stories about Africa and the ways in which simplistic, yet powerful, narratives impact policies and politics affecting the continent.

Course Material

- ONLINE Articles – Accessible through library reserves, the library database(s) Historical Abstracts, JSTOR, and/or accessible e-journals.
For access to databases and e-journals see ONLINE RESOURCES on the Maxwell MacOdrum Library website. ALL registered students with valid library cards have access to online library resources at Carleton.

Internet Sources

- IRIN (service of the UN): http://www.irinnews.org/Africa
- Pambazuka News: www.pambazuka.org

Course Requirements

1) ALL students must have access to the university online learning system (CU Learn). This requires having a university email account. If you do not have one, get one as soon as possible. ALL online course communication will be done via the online learning system.

2) Students are expected to attend classes, read assigned readings, and participate fully in class discussions, exercises, and activities.

3) Assignments are expected to reflect an understanding of the readings assigned and the themes discussed in class.

4) ALL written assignments MUST be submitted on the university online learning system and a hardcopy must also be submitted IN CLASS.

5) Students must receive a passing grade in all components of the assigned work in order to pass this course.

Late Submissions

There will be late penalties for all essays and research proposals. Essays will be penalized a half grade for each day the essay is late. For example, a B+ essay that is one day late will receive a grade of B, if it is two days late it will receive a grade of C+, and if it is three days late it will receive a grade C.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism – using another’s ideas, words or images as your own – is a serious academic offence and will not be tolerated. Please see the Carleton University Student Academic Integrity Policy (http://www1.carleton.ca/studentaffairs/academic-integrity/). All sources should be referenced properly in your assignments (in-text citations and bibliography) following the Chicago Manual of Style (History).

Course Evaluation

1) Class Participation – 20%
Each week the professor will assign specific students to prepare a 15 minute presentation on the assigned readings. All other students are required to prepare three discussion questions (drawn from issues addressed in the assigned readings) for the seminar. The professor will also select a student to facilitate the class discussion each week. The class facilitator should demonstrate a command of the readings.

Please see the grading scheme below.\(^1\) Participation implies, but is not restricted to, regular attendance. Class discussion will be grounded in the weekly readings, so students must demonstrate that they have a grasp of the literature assigned. Students should be able to demonstrate that they have read the required readings by their active participation and involvement in class discussion.

A+/ A/ A- A student receiving a grade in the A range:
- Always comes to class having done the readings
- Contributes readily to the conversation but does not dominate it
- Makes thoughtful contributions that advance the conversation
- Shows interest in and respect for others’ views
- Has an excellent attendance record

B+/ B/ B- A student receiving a grade in the B range:
- Almost always comes to class having done the readings
- Makes thoughtful comments when called upon
- Shows interest in and respect for others’ views
- Has a very good attendance record

C+/ C/ C- A student receiving a grade in the C range:
- Participates in discussion, but may have difficulty doing so at times
- Make rambling or tangential contributions
- Bluff their way when unprepared or otherwise dominate discussions
- May or may not have a good attendance record

D+/ D/ D- A student receiving a grade in the D range:
- Does not voluntarily contribute to discussions
- Gives only minimal answers when called upon
- Has not demonstrated their command of the course material
- May or may not have a good attendance record

F A student receiving a F grade:
- Has given no evidence that they have engaged with course material
- Has not demonstrated that they have developed a university level understanding of the course themes.
- Attends less than 50% of the seminars.

PLAGIARISM

The University Senate defines plagiarism as “presenting, whether intentionally or not, the ideas, expression of ideas or work of others as one’s own.” This can include:

- reproducing or paraphrasing portions of someone else’s published or unpublished material, regardless of the source, and presenting these as one’s own without proper citation or reference to the original source;
- submitting a take home examination, essay, laboratory report or other assignment written, in whole or in part, by someone else;
- using ideas or direct, verbatim quotations, or paraphrased material, concepts, or ideas without appropriate acknowledgment in any academic assignment;
- using another’s data or research findings;
- failing to acknowledge sources through the use of proper citations when using another’s works and/or failing to use quotation marks;
- handing in "substantially the same piece of work for academic credit more than once without prior written permission of the course instructor in which the submission occurs."

Plagiarism is a serious offence which cannot be resolved directly with the course’s instructor. The Associate Dean of the Faculty conducts a rigorous investigation, including an interview with the student, when an instructor suspects a piece of work has been plagiarized. Penalties are not trivial. They can include a final grade of "F" for the course.

STATEMENT ON CLASS CONDUCT

The Carleton University Human Rights Policies and Procedures affirm that all members of the University community share a responsibility to:

- promote equity and fairness,
- respect and value diversity,
- prevent discrimination and harassment, and
- preserve the freedom of its members to carry out responsibly their scholarly work without threat of interference.

Carleton University Equity Services states that “every member of the University community has a right to study, work and live in a safe environment free of discrimination or harassment”. [In May of 2001 Carleton University’s Senate and Board of Governors approved the Carleton University Human Rights Policies and Procedures. The establishment of these policies and procedures was the culmination of the efforts of the Presidential Advisory Committee on Human Rights and a Human Rights Implementation Committee.]

- A - = 80-84 (10)
- B+ = 77-79 (9)
- B = 73-76 (8)
- B - = 70-72 (7)
- C+ = 67-69 (6)
- C = 63-66 (5)
- C - = 60-62 (4)
- D+ = 57-59 (3)
- D = 53-56 (2)
- D - = 50-52 (1)

F  Failure. No academic credit
WDN Withdrawn from the course
ABS Absent from the final examination
DEF Official deferral (see "Petitions to Defer")
FND Failure with no deferred exam allowed -- assigned only when the student has failed the course on the basis of inadequate term work as specified in the course outline.

Standing in a course is determined by the course instructor subject to the approval of the Faculty Dean.

WITHDRAWAL WITHOUT ACADEMIC PENALTY

The last date to withdraw from Fall term courses is December 9. The last date to withdraw from Fall/Winter and Winter term courses is April 8, 2014.

REQUESTS FOR ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATION

You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term because of disability, pregnancy or religious obligations. Please review the course outline promptly and write to the instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist.

Students with disabilities requiring academic accommodations in this course must register with the Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) for a formal evaluation of disability-related needs. Documented disabilities could include but are not limited to mobility/physical impairments, specific Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/psychological disabilities, sensory disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), and chronic medical conditions. Registered PMC students are required to contact the PMC, 613-520-6608, every term to ensure that your Instructor receives your Letter of Accommodation, no later than two weeks before the first assignment is due or the first in-class test/ midterm requiring accommodations. If you only require accommodations for your formally scheduled exam(s) in this course, please submit your request for accommodations to PMC by November 8, 2013 for the fall term and March 7, 2014 for the winter term.
You can visit the Equity Services website to view the policies and to obtain more detailed information on academic accommodation at http://carleton.ca/equity/accommodation

PETITIONS TO DEFER

Students unable to complete a final term paper or write a final examination because of illness or other circumstances beyond their control or whose performance on an examination has been impaired by such circumstances may apply within five working days to the Registrar's Office for permission to extend a term paper deadline or to write a deferred examination. The request must be fully and specifically supported by a medical certificate or other relevant documentation. Only deferral petitions submitted to the Registrar's Office will be considered.
