

Institute of
African Studies
CARLETON UNIVERSITY

PRESENTS

“Bottom-up Change in a Top-down Government: Changing Policy and Law in Ethiopia”

Source: Ethiopia - Wikipedia

With

Logan Cochrane

Banting Fellow, Global and International Studies, Carleton University

Wednesday November 14 | 1:00 p.m. - 2:30 p.m.
Room 482 (Discovery Centre) MacOdrum Library
Carleton University***

About the Speaker

Logan Cochrane is a Banting Fellow at Carleton University in Global and International Studies. His research includes diverse geographic and disciplinary foci, covering broad thematic areas of food security, climate change, social justice, governance and collective action. Before joining Carleton University, Logan worked for twelve years with non-governmental organizations, including in Afghanistan, Benin, Burundi, the Democratic Republic of the Congo, Ethiopia, Tanzania and Uganda. Logan has served as a Director for two non-governmental organizations, and worked as a consultant with clients that have included Save the Children, Management Sciences for Health, The Liaison Office, UNICEF and UNAIDS. Awards he has been given include: Banting Postdoctoral Award (2017), Professional Development Awards by IDRC (2016-2017, 2017), SSHRC Storyteller finalist (2016), Vanier Canada Graduate Doctoral Award (2015), Robert M. Netting Award (2015), Mitacs Fellowship (2014), and he was Nominated for a YMCA Peace Medal, as an Emerging Leader (2009).

This is part of the African Studies Brownbag Seminar Series

\(http://www.carleton.ca/africanstudies/\)

For more information, please contact the Institute of African Studies at 613-520-2600 ext. 2220 or African\_Studies@carleton.ca

*For a campus map, please see: <http://carleton.ca/campus/map/>