

An evening with Alice Wairimu Nderitu,
Global Pluralism Award Winner 2017:

A Tireless Peacemaker, Conflict Mediator, Gender Equality Advocate

Moderated discussion with Sarah Onyango
Followed by Q&A

Thursday, November 16th, 6:00 pm
History Lounge in 433 Paterson Hall
Carleton University

A tireless peacemaker, conflict mediator and gender equality advocate, Alice has mediated and brokered peace in multiple ethnic conflicts throughout Africa. She has tirelessly worked to promote pluralism at all levels of conflict prevention by empowering diverse voices and including historically excluded groups in the mediation process. She has also developed peace education curricula and trained other female mediators. Female mediators are significantly underrepresented in peacebuilding; Alice's work proves that making peace is very much women's business.
