SOWK 5702: AFRICAN-CENTERED PERSPECTIVES IN SOCIAL WORK

This elective graduate course, taught by Senator Dr. Wanda Thomas Bernard, provides students with an opportunity to engage in critical dialogue, reflection and action about historical and contemporary experiences of African Canadians and Africans in the Diaspora. The course also focuses on awareness of Africentric theory and its application in social work practice, policy and research with Africans and non-Africans.

May 10 – August 14

Mondays 6:00 – 9:00 pm

Open to graduate students in ANTH, AFRI, PADM, PSYC, SOCI, SOWK and WGST.
