

THE INSTITUTE OF AFRICAN STUDIES PRESENTS

South Sudan: Struggles for Peace & for Gender Equality

Wednesday, September 23, 1:00- 2:30 pm
433 Paterson Hall (History Lounge)
Carleton University*

With

Tag Elkhazin, an independent consultant operating under Subsahara Centre (www.subsaharacentre.ca) with over 25 years of experience working throughout Africa, including on security sector reform, water & sanitation and capacity-building in South Sudan.

&

Riya William, Civic Education Officer with the Mundri Relief and Development Association (mundrireliefanddevelopment.org) and President of Play for Peace in South Sudan. She is currently part of the Sister-to-Sister Mentorship program of the Nobel Women's Initiative (nobelwomensinitiative.org).

This is part of the African Studies Umeme: African Flashpoints Series
(carleton.ca/africanstudies/events/umeme-african-flashpoints/)

Umeme: African Flashpoints brings together experts in a roundtable format to discuss such current experiences which confront the people in different locations in Africa, and which roll across media screens and pages across the world. Umeme is KiSwahili for lightning, the perilous bolt of electricity flashing across the sky which demands attention and reactions.
