

Institute of
African Studies
CARLETON UNIVERSITY

INSTITUTE OF AFRICAN STUDIES

PRESENTS

A Roundtable on Zimbabwe: A crocodile and the question of political change

Speakers include:

Linda Freeman, professor, Carleton
Andriata Chironda, PhD candidate, Carleton
Thembi-Cecilia Silundika, Zimbabwean-Canadian
Blair Rutherford, professor, Carleton

Friday, December 8, 2:30 pm
Paterson 433 (the History Lounge)
Carleton University*

This roundtable will reflect on the dramatic events in Zimbabwe in November 2017 which saw a military (“non-coup”) coup which removed the long-serving Robert Mugabe as president and replaced him with Emmerson Mnangagwa (nicknamed “the Crocodile”). Topics to be discussed will include the role of the military in Zimbabwean politics and society, the prospects for economic reform and political liberalization, the fallout in the region, the impact on international relations and foreign trade, the question of change in politics on land and agriculture, and the role of civil society, opposition parties, and the diaspora.

For more information, please contact african.studies@carleton.ca

* For a campus map, please see: <http://carleton.ca/campus/map/>