

The 2025-2026 application form for Joyce Family Foundation Bursaries for Indigenous Students

Terms

Value $5,000. Awarded annually to Indigenous students in demonstrated financial need who are entering any full-time undergraduate program of study at Carleton University. Application is required. Eligible students will demonstrate financial need and resilience in their pursuit of post-secondary education. Preference will be given to those who have limited or no other avenues of funding or support in their pursuit of post-secondary education. This award may be continued for 3 years of full-time enrollment provided the students remain in good academic standing and continue to demonstrate financial need. Endowed in 2021 through the generosity of The Joyce Family Foundation.

The intent of the Joyce Family Foundation Bursary is to provide a transformational opportunity to a student that faces significant financial barriers and has demonstrated the ability to overcome obstacles and adversity.

Award recipients will be invited to participate in mentorship program opportunities during their first year of studies and will be encouraged to act as mentors in subsequent years.
