

The 2025-2026 application form for

Pamela and Richard Joho Scholarship

Terms

Awarded annually to an outstanding student entering the Bachelor of Humanities, Bachelor of Arts in Greek and Roman Studies, or the Bachelor of Arts in Religion in the College of the Humanities (or any additional undergraduate degree program in the College of the Humanities) at Carleton University. Eligible students must be Canadian Citizens or permanent residents of Canada (landed immigrant or a protected person) and must demonstrate a strong academic background and participation in extra-curricular activities. Students who study abroad as part of any undergraduate degree program within the College of the Humanities are eligible to hold this scholarship in their year abroad. This scholarship is renewable up to four years. Application is required. Endowed in 2008 by Pamela and Richard Joho to honour their commitment to a classical education.

This scholarship is valued at $10,000 for the academic year and renewable for second, third and fourth year with an annual GPA of 10.0 or better (please refer to general eligibility criteria below).

Eligibility

- Canadian citizen, permanent resident or protected person
- Pursuing post-secondary studies for the first time
- Student entering the first year of an undergraduate degree program with the College of the Humanities at Carleton University (eligible programs include: Bachelor of Humanities, Bachelor of Arts in Greek and Roman Studies, Bachelor of Arts in Religion)
- Demonstrate strong academic background (minimum admission average 90% required)
- Demonstrate participation in extra-curricular activities
- This scholarship is renewable over the first four years of undergraduate study provided the recipient maintains full time enrolment (minimum of 4.0 credits over the Fall/Winter session) in The College of the Humanities and achieves an annual GPA of 10.0 or better.
- For awards, all grades (grade points of all Carleton credits/courses) from the previous Summer, Fall, and Winter terms are included in the calculation of the annual GPA.
- If the scholarship is lost in one year, it cannot be regained in a subsequent year

Instructions

- Complete the entire form and submit it directly to Awards and Financial Aid: awards@carleton.ca
- Late or incomplete applications will not be considered

Deadline

April 3

Form continues on page 2.

Section 1

Personal information

Last Name

First Name

Carleton Student ID

Program

Major or concentration

Phone Number

Email

High school information

High school name

High school address

High school address (cont.)

Citizenship Status

Canadian Citizen

Permanent Resident

Protected Person

Visa

Section 2

Describe your academic and career goals.

Section 3

Explain how receiving this scholarship will assist you in achieving your academic and career goals.

Section 4

Describe your participation in extra-curricular activities (including student leadership, volunteer work, community service, clubs, offices held, athletics, music etc.)*

*If you wish to write more than the space allows, simply continue on the back of this page, or attach a letter

Section 5

Student Declaration

I authorize Carleton University to release a copy of this application to the appropriate awards selection committee(s) and to the award donor, including my academic record and financial need information in order to adjudicate my application for an award. If requested, I agree to provide the Awards Office with any documentation necessary to verify the information on this application. I declare that the above information is true and accurate. If any information is inaccurate, I understand that an award may be reassessed and/or withdrawn.

Signature of Applicant

Date

At Carleton University, we recognize and respect the importance of privacy. Personal information that we collect is kept confidential. In accordance with section 41 of the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act, Carleton University will only use the information in its custody or control in the following circumstances: where the individual identifies the particular information and consents to its use; for the purpose for which it was collected or a consistent purpose (i.e. a purpose which the individual might have reasonably expected).