Carleton University | Awards and Financial Aid

The 2026-2027 application form for

Métis Nation of Ontario Bursary

Terms

Established by The Métis Nation of Ontario through the Métis Training Initiatives and awarded on the basis of financial need to registered undergraduate students in any faculty or school at Carleton University who are verified Métis citizens of the Métis Nation of Ontario. The value of this bursary will vary based on financial need and availability of funds.

Applicants will be required to consent to a citizenship verification check to confirm eligibility for these awards. To apply for this bursary, the Métis Nation of Ontario (MNO) will provide Carleton University students a letter to verify citizenship. Please include the verification letter with your bursary application.

Eligibility

- Undergraduate students, enrolled full-time or part-time, who are verified Métis citizens of the Métis Nation of Ontario (MNO)
- Métis citizenship verification check to confirm eligibility for these awards is required
- Applicant must demonstrate financial need (by completing and submitting the application form)

MNO Bursary Citizenship Verification

- Complete the MNO Bursary Citizenship Verification Form (this will involve providing key demographic information and consent to have citizenship status checked by the MNO's 3rd party Registry).
- MNO will provide students at Carleton University with a letter to verify citizenship. Please submit your citizenship confirmation letter with this application

Instructions

- Complete the entire form and submit it directly to Awards and Financial Aid: awards@carleton.ca
