Students participating in the Tour may also apply to participate in an internship program (2 months or more) with a European institution. Carleton's participation in the tour is managed by the Institute for European, Russian, and Eurasian Studies and the Centre for European Studies.

Some travel grants are available through the Centre for European Studies. Remember to apply for the IER bursary.

- Undergraduate students who will have third or fourth year standing by the beginning of the summer 2018 term (i.e. current second years and above) are eligible to apply. Specific coursework recommended for eligibility would be EURR 2001 and EURR 2002, or PSCI 3207. Graduate students are also eligible.
- There is also an internship option available (separate application).

Assessment Method:

- Students accepted to the tour will enroll in EURR 4302 (undergraduates) or EURR 5302 (graduate students). This course will involve about 12 hours of class meetings at Carleton prior to the May Tour start date, required readings, written assignments, a post-Tour class session, as well as participation in the Tour.

Financial Considerations:

-Costs: The estimated tour fee is CAD $3500 (subject to adjustment based on exchange rate). This includes transportation between and in European cities, all accommodations during the tour, and some meals and receptions. The fee does not include transatlantic airfare to and from Brussels and the cost of tuition (0.5 credit) for EURR 4320/5320 class.

-Grants: BGINS students should apply for their IER bursary; some additional funding is available from Carleton's Centre for European Studies.
