GINS 2000 [0.5 credit]

Ethics and Globalization

An introduction to global ethical issues, focusing on alternative lines of ethical argument. Topics could include: poverty and unequal development; climate change; war and terrorism; reparations for colonialism and slavery; international relief services; ill effects of globalization; trafficking and forced labour; democracy and global governance.

Prerequisite(s): second-year standing in B.G.In.S.

Lectures two hours a week, tutorials one hour a week.