

GINS 2010 [0.5 credit]

Globalization and International Economic Issues

An introduction to the world economy, international trade and finance, and economic development. Social and economic implications for both rich and poor countries of lowered barriers to the international flows of goods, services, capital, labour, and information in the age of globalization.

Prerequisite(s): Second-year standing in B.G.In.S.

Lectures two hours a week, tutorials one hour a week.