

GINS 2020 [0.5 credit]

Global Literatures

A study of the global dynamics of the contemporary literary imagination and literary production; literature as cultural practice; the politics of literary circulation; and the politics of language and translation.

Prerequisite(s): second-year standing in B.G.In.S.

Lectures two hours a week, tutorials one hour a week.