This course provides an opportunity for students to undertake a service-learning project facilitated by our partner organization in Belize, the Centre for Experiential Learning Abroad (CELA). In Belize, students work with local peoples on a project identified by the community. A Carleton faculty member teaches the course. The course involves three weeks of classes on the Carleton campus, followed by a two-week field trip to Belize, and concluding with a final one week of classes at Carleton. In addition to the faculty member, also accompanying the students on the field trip to Belize is a Carleton staff person. The Student Experience Office (SEO) handles all logistics for the course, including booking accommodations and airfare.

Spaces are limited; we will accept applications and reserve spaces in order as received.

BGInS students should remember to apply for the IER bursary.
