

Thinking Global, Beyond Limits

Sponsored by Global and International Studies
2017-18 Works-in-Progress Lunchtime Series
Conveners: Kamari Clarke and Karen Hébert

12:00PM – 2:00PM, unless otherwise noted
Location: Kroeger College Boardroom, D199 Loeb Building

Friday October 6

Pablo Mendez, Carleton Department of Geography and Environmental Studies

Of Lofts and Basements: Housing and Economic Restructuring in Vancouver

Discussant: Lorena Zárate, Habitat International Coalition

Friday November 3

Cristina Rojas, Carleton Dept. of Political Science & Institute of Political Economy

Asking Indigenous cosmopolitans how to turn globalization to something other than universalism

Discussant: Peter Gose, Anthropology, Carleton

Friday December 8

Michael Mopas, Carleton Department of Sociology and Anthropology

Sound and Listening in the Global Arena

Discussant: Dawn Moore, Law and Legal Studies, Carleton

Friday, January 19 - 11 am-12:30PM

Catherine Bonier, Carleton Azrieli School of Architecture & Urbanism

Smooth Cities: The Ethical Implications of Digital Urban Design Techniques

Discussant: Jill Wigle, Geography and Environmental Studies, Carleton

Friday February 9

Phillip Kaisary, Carleton Department of Law and Legal Studies

The Haitian Revolution and Socio-Economic Rights

Discussant: Meredith Terretta, History and Human Rights, University of Ottawa

Friday March 9

Audra Diptee, Carleton Department of History

The Problem of Modern Day Slavery: Is Critical Applied History the Answer?

Discussant: Candace Sobers, Global and International Studies, Carleton

Friday April 6 - 1:00-3:00PM

Karim Karim, Carleton School of Journalism and Communication

A Legacy of Ignorance: Western and Muslim Failures to Understand the Other

Discussant: Natasha Bakht, Faculty of Law, University of Ottawa

*To register for the workshop and lunch please e-mail:
Jenelle Williams (Jenelle.Williams@carleton.ca)*