

PUBLIC LECTURE

The Elephant in the Room (at Notre-Dame de Gourdon in Burgundy)

John Osborne, Professor Emeritus, The College of the Humanities, Carleton University

John Osborne is a medievalist and cultural historian, with a special focus on the art and archaeology of the city of Rome in the period between the sixth and twelfth centuries. Over the course of his career at Carleton he has held the titles of Distinguished Research Professor and Dean Emeritus of the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences. Additionally, he has held visiting fellowships at Corpus Christi College, Cambridge; the Istituto Ellenico di Studi Bizantini, Venice; and the Dumbarton Oaks Center for Byzantine Studies, Washington. In 2006 he was elected as an Honorary Fellow of the British School at Rome.

Glebe Community Centre
Thursday, September 21st, 2017
7:00 pm, Scotton Hall

All are welcome to attend the lecture.
Admission is free and open to the public.

College of the Humanities
CARLETON UNIVERSITY

