

Web exclusive

KRISTY WRIGHT

Carleton's famous Butterfly Exhibit is back on this October in the Nesbitt Biology Building. ANDREW NGUYEN takes a look at what visitors can expect from the colourful display.

CUSA and GSA have a lot of issues that they will be campaigning for on campus this year. ANDREA WROBEL talks to both groups to find out what they are, and why students should care.

CANDICE SO finds out what new initiatives are taking place on campus for Aboriginal students and has a look at a traditional ceremony on campus.

for these stories and more, see www.charlatan.ca